Parade Will Welcome Tarzan, Jr., Saturday For Bond Sale Effort

How would you like to see handsome young Johnny Sheffield who plays "Tarzan, Jr." as the son of "Tarzan" Johnny Weissmuller, in person and fulfill a patriotic duty at the same time?

You'll have your chance tomorrow when the youthful film player arrives in town—not in the scanty jungle garb—but as "Tarzan's Minute Boy," in the proud uniform of a Boy Scout of America.

Johnny will arrive in Medford at 2:15 p. m. and will be met at the south city limits by a patriotic group who will parade through the streets with him. The procession will start at Skinner's garage on South Riverside at 2:30 p. m. and march up Riverside to Main and West on Main street to the court house. They will turn on Oakdale to Sixth and East on Sixth street to Victory Center where the group will disband. The 13-ton U. S. army tank will be left in Victory Center (located directly behind the Jackson county Chamber of Commerce building) for personal inspection by the thousands expected to be in Medford for this first visit by a movie star on behalf of Jackson county's Defense Bond Drive.

At Victory Center the star will climb into an army jeep and will make the rounds of seven temporary bond booths, on important street corners, to sell and autograph defense bonds and stamps.

A patriotic rally will be held at Victory Center at 7:30 p. m. to allow the star to personally meet and sell stamps to southern Oregonians. He will autograph large quantities of bonds at this time as well as meet the mayor and give a short talk on "The Boys." The popular youngster will also demonstrate his "Tarzan" yell. One of the valley's largest bands will furnish martial music for the event.

Next on the program will be a personal appearance from the stage of the Craterian theatre at 9 p. m. and another appearance at the Holly theatre at 9:30 p. m. Sheffield will sell bonds in the lobby of both theatres between those hours.

The Grange

Lake Creek Grange

Lake Creek Grange met in regular session on May 22 with the Master Myrtle Charley presiding. Fred Stanley was elected alternate delegate to attend State Grange as Worthy Master. Myrtle Charley will be unable to attend.

Reports by committees included Louis Walch, agriculture committee. He told prices being quoted for scrap iron in Medford, also, prices of grain,

Tarzan Junior

etc. Louis is one of our young members and all were delighted with his report. Reed Charley reported for the co-op on the gas situation, also, on scrap iron. If people will get their scrap iron collected conveniently to the road it will be hauled in. Eilyn Charley read an article on Joe Louis.

Grange voted by a large majority to meet once a month, beginning after next meeting. Hereafter Grange will meet the second Friday of each month.

A fine birthday present, a shaving set, and card, was sent to Willard Welch, who is in defense work in Los Angeles.

We hope everyone will make a special effort to attend the meetings, only once a month.

Refreshments were served by H. E. C. Nora Bradshaw.

Next meeting will be June 12 at 8:30 p. m.
