Dorothy Schaad, Dean W. Ford Wed At Newberg

Miss Dorothy Schaad, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Schaad of Newberg, Ore., and Lieut. Dean Wallace Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Ford of this city, were married at a double ring ceremony last Sunday evening at the First Christian church in Newberg with Dr. C. W. Reynolds of the First Christian church in Corvallis presiding.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Gilbert Schaad, wore a dress of white chiffon and lace with a fingertip veil edged in lace. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of roses, gardenias and sweet peas.

Miss Bernice Schaad, gowned in blue taffeta and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas and roses, was her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the bride's twin cousins, Lorraine and Corrine McAllister of Portland. They wore gowns of old rose and carried old-fashioned nosegays.

The ring bearer was little Kenneth Schaad of Redmond and the flower girl, little Darlene Hightower of Eatonville, Wash. She wore a floor-length turquoise taffeta dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Thayle Ford, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Ensign Myrl McKee of Corvallis and Clyde Plants of Los Angeles.

Miss Hazel Mary Houser played the wedding march and Bob Gwinn accompanied by Mrs. H. Miller sang several numbers preceding the ceremony.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother for a large group of friends. The bride first cut the wedding cake which was later cut by Miss Elsie Schott, sister of the bride. Assisting in serving were Barbara Adam of Dallas; Viola Hofer of Albany; Eleanor Quade of Oregon City and June Peltz and Janet Phipps of Newberg. Grooms cake was distributed in tiny wrapped pieces to the guests.

Among out-of-town guests attending the ceremony were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. B. E. Ford and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thayle Ford, all of this city.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ford both attended Oregon State college, the former having taken three years in forestry after completing his high school education in this city. He is now flight commander and instructor for the U. S. air corps at Perrin field in Sherman, Texas.

The couple left for Portland after the reception and departed by United Mainliner for Denison, Texas, where they will make their home.

Edna Breeding, Elvis Schultz Wed At Church

Married at the First Presbyterian church in Rogue River Sunday May 31 at 4 p. m. were Miss Edna Breeding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Breeding of Rogue River and Elvis L. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Schultz of Ontario, Cal.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a sheer pale blue dress with puffed sleeves and a corsage of Cecil Bruner rosebuds with a matching halo headpiece. She was attended by her sister, Miss Dora, who wore a peach dress with a pastel sweet pea corsage.

Best man for the bridegroom was Joseph Boldgoin of Rogue River. Ushers were Lloyd Breeding of Rogue River and Raymond Burner of Grants Pass.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Cecil B. Roberts, of Grants Pass. Miss Eileen Dick played the traditional wedding march and a piano solo and Miss Marie Jones sang, "Always."

The church was decorated with spring flowers and the wedding couple stood before a white gateway where the ceremony was read in the presence of friends of the couple.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz will make their home in Central Point where Mrs. Schultz is employed at Faber's Market. Mr. Schultz is a carpenter at Camp White.

Observe 50th Anniversary
