NEED VOLUNTEERS FOR CITY LOOKOUT

A call was issued today for five volunteers to help man an air raid lookout station in the city, and those wishing to cooperate in this important phase of civilian defense were urged to apply at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible.

It was pointed out that during this critical time all lookout stations must be constantly and effectively manned. Volunteers for this station can be either men or women, it was stated.

SEEK NEW PREXY—Portland, June 9—(P)—Williamette University opened its search for a new president last night by naming a committee to consider candidates.

BOOMER FINED ON SECOND ESCAPE

Haven Merrill Boomer, charged with being intoxicated on a public highway, pleaded guilty and was fined $30 and costs in justice court yesterday. He had no funds and was ordered committed to the county jail to serve it out. His liquor license was suspended.

Boomer told the court he was employed as an electrician at the cantonment, and received $1.50 per hour.

Boomer was fined $10 and costs last Saturday on a guilty plea to assault and battery in a complaint signed by his wife. He promised the court he would return to his job and pay yesterday. Instead, the state police picked him up on McAndrews road a short time after he had been freed. His wife, in a letter to him in jail, told him she was leaving and had taken all his cash.

Charles E. Bryant, charged with being intoxicated in a public place, was fined $10 and costs. He was also committed to the county jail for inability to pay.

FRED W. GREENE BECOMES MAJOR

Fred W. Greene of Medford, stationed "somewhere in Australia" with the quartermaster corps of the U. S. army, has been promoted from captain to major according to word received here yesterday by his wife, who resides at 1716 East Main street.

Mrs. Greene said she received five letters from her husband yesterday, one of which contained the news of his recent promotion.

Maj. Greene, a Medford high school graduate, was formerly assistant district quartermaster of the CCC here and was ordered to active duty at headquarters of the 8th corps area, Presidio, San Francisco, in October of last year. He left for Australia last March.

A brother, Charles R. Greene of 611 South Riverside avenue, is employed by the Mail Tribune.
