

Chicago White Sox Fall Into Cellar After Losing To A's, 2 to 0

ED SMITH FLINGS TWO-HITTER BUT LOSES ON FLUKES

Defeat Is Tenth In Row For Unlucky Southpaw—Yankees Trounce Detroit.

Special "days" for ball players have been frowned upon in the major league this year because of the war, but in the spirit of fair play the American league should quickly set aside an "Ed Smith day" and instead of presenting him a rawhide suitcase or a set of matched teapots give him a guaranteed non-disappearing victory.

The stout, blond southpaw, who was one of the leading pitchers in the league last year, has lost 10 games this season without winning one and last night at Philadelphia he bumped into the most baffling setback of all.

He held the Athletics to two hits and yet was beaten 2-0 as the Chicago White Sox slumped into last place in the standings. In the second inning Bob Johnson led off with a double. Dick Siebert walked and when Smith threw too late to catch Johnson at third after fielding Buddy Blair's bunt, the bases were loaded. One run trickled across on a double play. Then with one down in the fifth Pete Suder walked, reached second on an infield out, advanced to third as Pitcher Bob Harris scratched a single to deep short and scored when Luke Appling threw the ball wide to first.

The New York Yankees contributed another change to the American league standings by beating Detroit 4-1 and knocking the Tigers out of second place. Rookie Hank Borowy pitched four-hit ball to achieve his fourth consecutive victory.

Doerr Hits Four
The Boston Red Sox took advantage of the opportunity to move ahead of Detroit with a 7-4 triumph over the rugged St. Louis Browns. Bobby Doerr led the Red Soxers with four hits, including a homer and a double, and regained the league's batting leadership with .390.

Five Washington errors helped the Cleveland Indians gain a 7-6 decision against the Senators in a 10-inning night game at the capital.

The Brooklyn Dodgers' night game at St. Louis was postponed until tomorrow night, limiting National league activity to two games.

At Cincinnati each team was held to five hits but the New York Giants curbed the Reds 3-1.

At Pittsburgh the Pirates supplanted Boston in fifth place by beating the Braves 10-2. It was the eighth straight loss for Casey Stengel's crew.

Big Sports Show Scheduled For Army and Navy Relief

By Harold Claassen
New York, June 10—(AP)—Everything from athletic trap drummers to musically inclined athletes make up the cast of characters for New York's five-hour sports show Sunday at the Polo Grounds for the benefit of army and navy relief.

The feature attraction will depend entirely upon the spectator's own point of view. For the baseball fan it probably will be the five-inning contest that pits Bob Feller, Cleveland's strike-out king before he became a U. S. sailor, and his Norfolk naval training base nine against and all-star army aggregation.

The boxing addict will have a chance to see Corp. Joe Louis Barrow, in private life the heavyweight champion, go four rounds against George Nicholson. To make the affair realistic, both boxers have promised to discard their head gear.

Greg Rice, who travels farther and faster on foot than most people can in a car, will do a bit of distance running; Cornelius Warmerdam will make an attempt to clear 16 feet in the pole vault; and Al Blozis will take on the aspects of a 75mm gun by throwing the shot out of sight.

Golf contributes a "driving for accuracy contest featuring Craig Wood, Vic Ghezzi, Corp. Jim Turnesa and Pvt. Ed (Porky) Oliver.

There'll even be a soccer match involving Brooklyn and New York lineups, plus a tug-of-war in which the Gotham firemen will attempt to manhandle the police.

Don Budge will bare his red thigh in a mixed doubles tennis encounter in which Alice Marble will be one of the competitors.

AD LISKA RAPPED HARD AS TWINKS BEAT BEVOS, 7-1

(By the Associated Press)

The San Francisco Seals defeated Seattle, 6 to 4, last night to take over fifth place in the Pacific Coast league baseball race, two percentage points behind the Rainiers.

If the Seals repeat their winning performance tonight they will pass the Rainiers and bask in the sunlight of the upper division for the first time this season.

The best pitching performance of the evening was turned out at Hollywood by Charley Root, who gave up two hits in hurling the Twinks to a 7 to 1 win over Portland.

Ad Liska, Beaver submarine-ball ace threw just right for Twink batters who pounded him for a dozen bingles and the seven runs scored before Tillie Shafer relieved in the eighth. John Dickshot measured a Liska offering for a two-run homer in the seventh.

The Los Angeles Angels continued their league-leading pace in their first appearance of the season before Sacramento fans who saw the home team suffer a 7 to 2 mauling.

San Diego routed Oakland, 5 to 1, behind the five-hit twirling of Southpaw Wal Olsen whose teammates cooperated by pounding Ivalo Chelini for 11 hits. The loss cost Oakland fifth place.

Short score:
Portland..... 1 2 4
Hollywood..... 7 12 0
Liska, Schafer and Castro;
Root and Brenzel.

4 CALIFORNIANS IN HALE AMERICA

Los Angeles, June 10—(AP)—Southern California's representatives in the Hale American golf tournament at Chicago will be amateur Johnny Dawson and professionals Olin Dutra, Willie Hunter and Ellsworth Vines.

The four led the field in qualifying for the event and Dawson announced he would compete. Whether the others would make the trip remained to be seen. Hunter finished the 54-hole qualifying with a final round 76 for a total of 215; Dutra with 145-72-217; Dawson with 148-73-219, and Vines with 152-72-224.

BILL CARNEY IS SIGNED BY STARS

Portland, June 10—(AP)—The Hollywood Stars of the Coast league signed William J. Carney, ex-University of Oregon outfielder.

Carney was captain of this year's Webfoot team. He had a three-year batting average of .370.

He left for Hollywood at once. A recent recruit in the navy's V-7 officer training program, he does not expect to be called into service until late this year.

Findings by the British Medical Research council suggests that weekly hours of work should generally not exceed 60 to 65 for men and 55 to 60 for women.

"Twin Beds" Coming To Craterian

The funniest thing on eight legs is the hilariously awaited Medford showing of "Twin Beds", co-starring George Brent and Joan Bennett and coming to the Craterian theatre Sunday for a three day stay. Mischa Auer does a little canining in the picture and stands by the legs is the hilariously awaited "hint." Glenda Farrell does her duty, as she sees it, for George Brent and Una Merkel and Ernest Truex just get in the way—and they are all in "Twin Beds" as romantic a riot as can be imagined.

"Sabu" Star of "The Jungle Book"

Sabu, the Elephant Boy, plays "Mowgli" in the Technicolor picturization of Rudyard Kipling's "The Jungle Book", coming to the Rialto theatre Friday for one big week. The young star is befriended by "Kaa", a giant man-eating python who protects him from his jungle enemies. Thrills beyond comparison are crowded into this amazing jungle adventure—

Playground Care Is Given Many Children Need More Workers

The children's playground on East Main street will be open Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday of this week. As soon as enough volunteer adult playground supervision can be secured the grounds can be open five or six days a week.

Fifty-two children registered last Saturday. Mrs. Linn Shields, Mrs. J. W. Graham and Mrs. R. D. Porter were volunteer attendants in charge.

The project is under supervision of the Works Projects Administration, sponsored by the local defense recreation committee and local Parent-Teachers association groups.

All children between two and 10 years may be left at the playground. Parents are requested to bring their children, rather than to send them to the grounds alone. Three hours is the maximum time any child should stay.

Mystery Thriller On Holly Bill

There's been a murder in the big house, Van Johnson and Faye Emerson, playing the roles of dare-devil reporters, are told in one of the many tense moments from the new mystery thriller, "Murder in the Big House", playing tonight and tomorrow night only at the Holly theatre as the added feature with Liberty Magazine's "Unexpected Uncle", starring Anne Shirley, James Craig and Charles Coburn.

Recreation Program at Camp Coryell Is Organized by W. P. A.

The recreation tent at Camp Coryell was opened last Friday evening under leadership direction of the Work Projects Administration defense recreation program.

Work on the tent was done by organized labor groups under supervision of Lloyd Rupp, chairman of the organized labor recreation committee. Lumber was donated by the Timber Products company.

Camp people were entertained by Mrs. Eve Prentice and her accordion band. The band played for the dance which followed the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Squier took top place in the prize wait.

The women met Monday with Mrs. Marjorie Pena and worked out a schedule for program activities and playground supervision. They organized a club, electing the following officers: President, Mrs. Squier, vice president, Mrs. Boker; secretary, Mrs. Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Infell. Each member volunteered a morning of each week to supervise children's activities.

Today a committee from the Extension Service Recreation committee will direct a program. Mrs. Olive Floyd will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ward, Mrs. A. E. Brockway and Jessie Fish. Friday evening Mrs. Alexander's Hawaiian band will provide entertainment.
