

Dorris and Craters in Crucial 2-Game Series Here This Week-End

CRIPPEN TO HURL SATURDAY NIGHT TILT FOR LOCALS

Clyde Carlstrom on Mound For Dorris — Lieber or Wimer Slated For Sunday

Red Tolbert's larrupin' Dorris, (Cal.) Lumberjacks invade Medford this week-end for a two-game series with Dutch Lieber's Craters, and when the firing is completed the current triple tie existing in the Oregon-California league pennant race may be shattered.

First game of the set will be played Saturday night, starting at 9 o'clock, at the fairgrounds park, and the series finale will be staged at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

Medford, Dorris and Klamath Falls are at present tied for first place with four wins and two losses apiece. While the Craters and Lumberjacks are cutting each others' throats Klamath Falls will be entertaining the winless Grants Pass Merchants, whom they should hand a double setback. If this happens, Medford or Dorris will have to win both games here in order to keep pace with the Pelicans.

Manager Dutch Lieber said today that Steve Crippen, unbeaten in three league starts, would be on the rubber for the Craters Saturday night, while Dorris was expected to send its ace righthander, Clyde Carlstrom, to the elbowing mound. Carlstrom, like Crippen, has won three and lost none, so the game should be a neat pitchers' duel.

Either Lieber or Al Wimer, the young University of Oregon lefthander, will do the Crater hurling Sunday, with Jim Snyder, Dorris pitcher, providing the opposition.

Adams to Catch
Lieber said the Craters would take the field Saturday night with a lineup including Hal Adams, catching; Lieber on first, Johnny Gitzen on second, Norman Worthley on short, Don Fawcett on third, Dwight Catherwood in left, Al Wray Lightner in center and Madden in right. Sunday, Glen Swanson will do the receiving and Crippen will move to first base.

The Lumberjacks will have the hard-hitting Bart Goldbar back of the plate, Jack Duracha

Gets 2,000th Hit

Roger "Doc" Cramer, slugging Detroit outfielder who joined the Tigers this year on a trade with Washington, selects a bat with which to pole out his 2000th hit in 14 seasons in the American league.

on first, Orlo Oakes on second, Bill Crisp on short, Earl Brooks on third, Snively in left, Gaspari in center and DeVore in right.

The two clubs have met twice before this season. Dorris pasting the locals, 13 to 1 on Carlstrom's pitching and the Craters bouncing back for a 3 to 0 victory as Crippen yielded only two blows.

SOCKEYE, INDIAN TO TOP PROGRAM

Promoter Mack Lillard announced today that Sockeye McDonald and Chief Thunderbird would clash in the main event of next Monday night's armory wrestling program, and that Prince Selak, Mihalikis would return to southern Oregon after a two-year absence to clash with George Craig, Camp White blacksmith, in the six-round middle event.

Opening the card at 8:30 sharp will be Pete Melcastro, sharp will be Pete Belcastro, berto Corral, popular Mexican.

PASSEAU AND LEE KEEP CUBS FROM STRIKING BOTTOM

Pair Win 17 of Club's 25 Victories—Passeau Hurls 5-Hitter To Tip Phils.

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs had Bill Lee and Claude Passeau, their veteran pitchers, on the block last winter and it is scarcely more than luck that this pair still wears those odd suits the Bruins use for baseball uniforms.

Yet today Passeau and Lee between them have accounted for 17 of the Cubs' 25 victories in the National League and one wonders where the sixth place Chicago Cubs would be if either or both of these big righthanders had been traded.

Lee won his eighth game Wednesday and Passeau followed with his ninth yesterday in the shape of a five-hit 7-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

The only tally the tailenders made resulted from a fumble by Bill Nicholson in the second inning after Nick Etten had singled.

The only other National league encounter scheduled was between the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals and for the third day in a row weather kept these feudists idle.

Boston Wins
Half the American league program also had to be postponed, although the Detroit Tigers and New York Yankees made a start. The game lasted long enough for catcher Buddy Roser of the Yankees to sprain a muscle in his left leg and have to be helped off the field.

The Boston Red Sox completed a sweep of their three-game series with the St. Louis Browns by winning 8-7 on a ninth-inning run which Jim Tabor singled home.

Cleveland also completed a sweep of its series at Washington by rallying for four runs in the ninth inning to beat the Senators 8-6.

Torrid Texans Take Lead In Inverness Best-Ball Duels

By Fritz Howell
Toledo, O., June 12.—(AP)—Sixteen of the nation's hot-shot professionals aimed to lay down another birdie barrage today in the second round of the $7,630 eighth annual Inverness best-ball matches, with 14 of the play-for-pay boys pursuing those torrid Texans, Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan, the 1941 winners.

The Lone Star state lads ripped six strokes off par yesterday, each getting three birdies, to win a four-up decision over Denny Shute and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison. That put the defending champions out front, but they meet the second place duo, Henry Picard and Sam Byrd, today.

Picard and Byrd scored a two-up decision over Herman Keiser and Chandler Harper, the Miami four-ball tourney winners, to get the runner-up spot.

The contestants scored 44 birdies yesterday, but the opening round feature was furnished by Lawson Little, 1934 and 1935 amateur grand slammer, and 1940 national ope king. He scored seven birdies, while partner Lloyd Mangrum came thru with two, for a best ball count of 62, nine under par, and a one-up decision over Byron Nelson and Jimmy Thompson. Nelson scored five birdies.

CARDS TO DEFEND TITLE ON LINKS

Evanston, Ill., June 12.—(AP)—The trains still are running, the automobile tires still are holding out, so the golfers are coming from all over the country for the national collegiate meet, June 22-27, at Chain O'Lakes course at South Bend, Ind.

Stanford, defending team champion, will head western schools along with the University of Washington and Southern California. Louisiana State, whose Earl Stewart is defending individual titleholder, will send a team from the south as will Texas and Duke. The Duke squad is captained by Grover Poole, southern intercollegiate champion.

ALSAB QUARTERED BY BONE GROWTH

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Those roses that Alsab missed in the Kentucky Derby would be highly appreciated today by Mrs. Albert Sabath's wonder colt, who will be confined to quarters for at least a month with the first serious ailment of his colorful and profitable career.

A blind splint, that bony growth on the side of the splint bone discernible only by X-ray, was discovered yesterday on one of Alsab's forelegs, making Shut Out's principal rival strictly a shut in.

Japanese Ash Trays Irk Conventioners

Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—J. S. Wilson, Sacramento, Calif., one of 500 delegates attending the international convention of the order of railroad telegraphers today, noticed the words "made in Japan" on the bottom of the glass ash tray on his desk.

He jumped to his feet and sent the object crashing to the floor. Minutes later, four hundred and ninety-one other delegates followed suit.

Japs Must Store Cars During War

Portland, June 12.—(AP)—Carl B. Cadwell, state rationing executive today notified the Arlington rationing board that Japanese evacuees can only store their automobiles for the duration or sell them to the federal reserve bank.

They must not sell to private citizens either themselves or through an agent.

STANFORD MENTOR EYES NAVY CALL

Palo Alto, Calif., June 12.—(AP)—Jim Lawson, who succeeded Clark Shaughnessy as head football coach at Stanford University three months ago, is expected to be called into the navy.

He called members of the Indian football squad together yesterday and announced he had applied for a commission in the navy under Lieut. Comdr. Tom Hamilton's pre-flight training program.

St. Mary's college, one of four schools taken over by the navy for the program to condition prospective flying cadets, opened its doors to the first training class yesterday and Lawson indicated he would like one of the jobs at the Moraga school.

Stars Wallop Nelson for 13 Hits and 8-2 Conquest of Beavers

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Seals pulled to within a percentage point of fourth place Seattle last night when they defeated the Rainiers, 8-2, in a Pacific Coast league baseball game at San Francisco.

The win left the Seals in a tie with the Rainiers for the upper division spot on the basis of games behind the leading club.

Bob Joyce limited Rainier batters to five safeties, but Seal hitters collected only five hits from the offerings of Barrett and Mike Budnick.

Another five-hitter was pitched by John Bittner for Hollywood as the Twinks walloped Portland, 8-2. Roy Helser was the victim of a 13-hit attack from Twink stickmen.

The Beavers were shut out until the last frame when two hits and an error were good for two runs.

The Solons won their first game of the week's series from Los Angeles, 6 to 4, to take over second position from the Padres, who dropped a game to Oakland, 1 to 2.

Short score:
Portland.....2 5 1
Hollywood.....8 13 1
Helser and Castro, Leovich (8); Bittner and Brenzel.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

Questions and Answers about Newspaper Advertising

Q. Do you know of any measure for the value of newspaper circulation to an advertiser such as the standards that a business man uses in buying merchandise?

tion is then published in A.B.C. reports for the use and protection of advertisers.

A. Yes. In the well-known standards that have been approved and adopted by advertisers—namely A.B.C. standards.

Q. What do these reports show?

A. A.B.C. reports tell how much circulation a newspaper has, where this circulation is, how it was obtained, how much people paid for it, and many other verified facts that advertisers should know when they buy advertising.

Q. What is A. B. C.?

A. A.B.C. stands for Audit Bureau of Circulations, a cooperative association of 2000 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers in the United States and Canada.

Q. Are all publications eligible for A. B. C. membership?

A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is the best proof of interest and purchasing power on the part of the readers.

Q. What is the Bureau's work?

A. To audit the circulation of newspapers and periodicals so that advertisers can buy space on the basis of definite standards and verified facts and figures.

Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations?

A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation and we want our advertisers to know just what they get for their money when they advertise in our columns. The audited information in our A.B.C. report gives them the complete facts.

Q. How does A. B. C. accomplish this?

A. The Bureau has a large staff of experienced auditors. These men visit the publisher members annually and make audits of their circulation records. This informa-
