

Joan Bennett, George Brent In "Twin Beds", Rollicking Craterian Hit

MISCHA AUER AND UNA MERKEL STAR IN GAY NEW SHOW

Glenda Farrell In Cast—
"March of Time" Added
Screen Attraction.

A slick comedy cast, headed by such luminaries as Joan Bennett, George Brent, Mischa Auer, Glenda Farrell, Ernest Truex and Una Merkel, is responsible for the gayety, fun and hilarity which highlight the swift-moving action of the new Edward Small production, "Twin Beds," which is slated for its local premiere at the Craterian theatre where it opens a three-day run today.

"Twin Beds" tells a laugh-getting story of a young married couple, consisting of Miss Bennett and Mr. Brent, who become involved in a whole series of crazy complications because the heroine goes about daffily doing good deeds where they always have the worst possible effect.

Miss Bennett's enthusiasm for good causes finally brings her harassed husband to the end of his rope and he skips town. When he returns, on a mission of reconciliation, he is greeted by a surprise that is more than any man in his right mind is willing to accept. From there on the story gambols madly to a bright finish.

"Saboteur" Coming to Craterian

Revealing the most dangerous menace the American people have to face today—"Saboteur," comes to the Craterian Theatre Wednesday for a four day run, as the most important thrill picture of a decade. Filmed by that master of suspense, Alfred Hitchcock, "Saboteur" stars Robert Cummings, the sensational star of "King's Row", and Priscilla Lane. Others in the film are Otto Kruger and Alan Baxter.

March of Time's newest release, "Crisis in India," plays as an added attraction with "Twin Beds." This new and important issue shows the political and social story of Great Britain's problems in the far east and also includes a few slants on the Burma road question.
