

ENGLISH LUTHERAN VACATION SCHOOL ENDS WITH PICNIC

Climaxing two weeks of fruitful activity, the daily vacation Bible school of Zion English Lutheran church was brought to a close with a picnic Friday noon at the rear of the church for the children. The school was under direction of the pastor, the Rev. Karl W. Brockhaus, with the assistance of Mrs. A. Brewold, Mrs. H. Lagesen, Mrs. K. Brockhaus, John Baglien and David Dawson as teachers and leaders. Over forty were enrolled.

At a special Children's day service at the regular worship hour Sunday at 11 a. m. young people of the school will have an active part in the service and their work will be on display. Attendance awards will be made at this time. Members of the confirmation class of 1942, who will be received as communicant members of the church next Sunday, will be publicly examined at the Children's day service, the sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered, and a special children's sermon presented by the pastor.

The following will have active parts in the Children's day service: Beginners—Viola Russell, Tommy Gail, Frank Gage, Henry Stevens, Carol Hicks, Diana Russell, Glenna Brewold; primary—Martha Lolland, Agnes Lagesen, Avis Gilman, Susan Gilman, Dick Hanson, Jerry True, Bobby Larwood, Florence Gilman, Geraldine Gilman, David Kirscher, Joanne True, Beverly Hampson; Juniors—Roger Hogstrom, Aage Gribskov, Merton Ball, Betty Larwood, Robert Gilman, Joann Blunkall, Billy Canon; senior—Norma Jean Steinbrecher, Nancy Swem, Myrla Ball, Barbara Christensen, Dorothy Hanson, Thomas Steinbrecher, Roger Sterton, Walter Hogstrom, Sidney Lagesen, Donald Blunkall, Carl Borg, and Charles Gerhardt.

RUSSELL CIRCUS COMING MONDAY

Russell Bros.' three-ring circus, one of the three largest now touring America, will give a one day performance in back of the Jackson grade school Monday, June 29. Doors to the menagerie will open at 1 and 7 p. m., with performances starting at 2 and 8 o'clock.

The circus includes a menagerie, performing elephants, trained horses and other animals, together with all manner of acrobats, aerial gymnasts, tumblers, jugglers, equilibrists and clowns—all presented with the traditional atmosphere of the "big top."

Advance agents emphasize that the circus is not to be confused with carnivals that use the word "circus" in their advertising. It is, rather, a higher-class three-ring circus in all that the term implies, it was stated.

Closing time for Classified Ads 9 a. m.—Too late to classify 12:30 p. m.
