Betrothal Of Marie Boliou Told by Mother

Relatives and friends in southern Oregon received word last week of the betrothal of Miss Marie Boliou, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Boliou of Ukiah, Cal., to Private O. C. Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter of Salinas, Cal. Miss Boliou spent several months in Medford and Ashland last summer in company with her mother.

Miss Boliou graduated from Ukiah high school Friday and has been associated with the community players, having entertained at Ukiah and Willits with vocal selections. The bridegroom-elect is at present attending aviation ground crew school in Chicago with the U. S. Marines and expects to complete his course this fall.

Picnic Held At Spilver Home By Local D.A.R.

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held a picnic luncheon on the lawn at the home of Mrs. H. F. W. Spilver on Hamilton street Saturday, June 13. This was the annual flag day picnic and was attended by 17 members and three visitors.

Following the luncheon, a short business meeting was held. The meeting date was voted to be the fourth Saturday of each month beginning with the next meeting, which will be September 26, as July and August are vacation months.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Nettie Howard, Mrs. F. W. Wait, and Mrs. F. Wilson Wait. Mrs. Jessie Beach was chairman of the committee. Assisting her were Mrs. Lester Nielsen and Mrs. Helen Dixon.

Klamath Couple To Reside Here

New residents in this city are Mr. and Mrs. James Lear, who were married last Sunday afternoon at the Walt Kennett home in Klamath Falls. They plan to make their home here during the summer months. Mr. Lear being employed at Camp White.

Mrs. Lear is the former Hazel Leonard and has taught for a number of years in the Klamath Falls schools. She will resume her teaching in the fall.

Mrs. Hoffmeyer was entertained at numerous social events during her stay in southern Oregon, among them a luncheon recently by Mrs. T. W. Miles of this city and a dessert luncheon by Mrs. George H. Yeo in Ashland.

Grand Session Reports Heard At O.E.S. Meeting

Reports on the Grand Session, O.E.S., held in Portland recently were heard Thursday evening at the meeting of Adarek chapter, No. 3, O.E.S., Jacksonville at the Masonic hall. The meeting brought to a close activities of the chapter until the fall months.

Adarek chapter was well represented at the grand session with Lulu Saulsberry, grand chaplain; Mollie Britt, grand representative of the District of Columbia; Dorothy Waldron, grand page; Mattie Luman, worthy matron of Adarek, Jeannette Spencer, La Vesta Gardner and Allene Maxwell being in attendance.

The memorial service in commemoration of departed members, written and directed by Mrs. Saulsberry, was described as impressive and beautiful. The late Col. Robert Miller, was a former member of Adarek chapter and organizer and first worthy grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

On behalf of the members Mrs. Luman presented a gift to Dorothy Waldron. A vote of thanks was given Edith Antle and Jane Kessler for work on the affair.

The dining room tables were decorated with vases of summer flowers. In charge of arrangements and refreshments were Violet Wilson, Anna Langley, Mabel Todd and Milton Wynn, assisted by Vivian Wilson, Ernest Langley, May Wynn and Grant Todd.

Vacation Recital At Gore Resident

An interesting musical event of the vacation season was a piano recital presented by students of Mrs. E. E. Gore at her home the morning of May 12. The recital was preceded by a study of the record of Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony", the first theme of which has come to be known as the victory theme, three dots and a dash.

Guests were Mrs. Jean McAllister, Mrs. Richard Payne, Mrs. Walter Lillie, Miss Alice Holmback, and Miss Betty Mowbray. Assisting were Miss Helen Storm, Miss Derva Sater and Miss Kathleen Seekatz.

The program included "The Skating Party", Shirley Seekatz; "Frolie in the Gym", Marilyn Payne; "Summer Days", Betty Lillie; "The Skating Party", Kathryn McAllister; "Dream Boat", John DeZell; "March", Billie Older; "Hornpipe and Musetta", Joan DeZell; "At the Derby", Patricia Lydiard; "The Guitar", Kathleen Seekatz; "Consolation", Ann Denman; "Sole de Ball", Derva Sater; "Adagio", by Beethoven, Helen Storm. Singing of America by the group.

Visitor Returns To Oregon City

Mrs. Andrew Hedlund, formerly of this city, visited for several days in this city last week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Childreth on South Peach street. Mrs. Hedlund was en route to her home in Oregon City from Klamath Falls where she had been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Virgil Barron, for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Hedlund also visited her son, Cadet Al Gould of the U. S. army air corps, who has been on leave from Lowry field, Denver, Colo., and who returned by bus to Denver Wednesday evening. She was accompanied home by her granddaughter, Miss Shirley Ann Childreth, who will spend a week or 10 days in Oregon City.

Evangelist Fife Ends Revival At Service Tonight

The revival conducted by Evangelist Earl Hanson Fife at the Central Avenue Church of Christ, Central avenue and Jackson street, will close with tonight's vesper service at 5 o'clock. His sermon topic will be "Into the Night." Following the meeting Rev. Fife will leave for his home in Albuquerque, N. M., where he will perform the wedding ceremony for his daughter Dorothy, and Harry Young, a former Medford resident. The morning service theme will be "God's Man."

Leaders of the Central Avenue Church of Christ are much heartened by the success of the revival. For the past four nights there have been additions by confession of faith and baptism. Between forty and fifty tithers have been signed and the congregation is in the best financial condition of its history.

STRIKERS SUSPENDED

Detroit, June 20—(AP)—Richard T. Frankenstein, regional director for the United Automobile Workers (CIO), said today that four employees of the Hudson naval ordnance plant here had been discharged for "fomenting an unauthorized stoppage" of war production Thursday.
