TRANSIENT PAIR ABSOLVED IN E. P. POSTAL ROBBERY

Harold L. Sanders and Howard M. White, Modesto, Calif., first held by the Sheriff's office on suspicion of knowing something about the robbery of the Eagle Point postoffice early last Friday morning, were given sentences yesterday in justice court. The pair, reported as noticed driving around Eagle Point that night, in an auto belonging to another, were absolved of all connection with the crime, as Deputy Sheriff William Grenbemer, who investigated strongly intimated from the start.

White, charged with vagrancy, was given ten days suspended county jail sentence, and Sanders was assessed $1.50 and costs for driving an auto without an operator's license. Both told the court they had work awaiting them in their home town, and the court remarked, that was where they should be. A friend had loaned them his car for a spin around the valley.

Truck drivers, J. E. Ellison, Medford, Byron O. Bushnell and Benjamin L. Lockwood, both of Talent, were each fined $5.00 and costs on log overload charges.

For failure to stop at a stop sign, Jimmy W. Glen, Medford, and Merle Metcalf, Shady Cove, were each fined $1.00 and costs and William D. Wilburn paid $1.50 and costs for having no operator's license.
