"Reap the Wild Wind" Opening Here Today

"Spectacular" and "epic" are much overworked words—but if they ever applied to a motion picture they apply one hundred percent to Cecil B. DeMille's gorgeous and gusty technicolor saga of the sea, "Reap the Wild Wind," which opens today for one week at the Rialto theatre. John Wayne, Ray Milland, Paul

REDS PIN SINKING ON JAP SUBMARINE

Moscow, June 26—(AP)—Soviet Russia pinned responsibility today for the sinking of the Soviet merchantman Angarsk on a Japanese submarine, puncturing Tokyo's insistence that the act was a provocation by the United States.

Since the 4,761-ton merchantman was torpedoed May 1 only 32 miles off the Japanese coast, Japan has blamed a United States submarine, contending that the United States evidently hoped to fan the ancient enmity between Russia and Japan.

THE value of currency, it appears, is not in the hands of Mr. Eccles or Mr. Morgenthau, but in the hands of Leon Henderson. When you read the prices of food in your grocery, you will find out the real value of the dollar these days.

What this portends for post-war policies, domestic and international, cannot be foretold yet, but they are all rooted in the basic gold theory.

Certainly this seems to mark an official end of the new era of grand mechanical economic formulas to control prices indirectly by taxation, by the Warren theory, by gold or silver.

War-time demand for nitrates has occasioned the opening in Chile of an important plant which has been idle for 12 years.

Quarry Blast Kills Ex-Oregon Athlete

Astoria, Ore., June 26—(AP)—Injuries suffered in a premature dynamite explosion at a quarry south of Seaside May 28 proved fatal for Homer F. Dickson, 37, Seaside contractor, at a hospital here yesterday.

Death came only a few hours after he had been told that his wife had given birth to twins, a boy and a girl. He was a one-time University of Oregon track star.

News Behind The News By Paul Mallon

Republican, led Mr. Eccles up to the subject, suggesting that the country is getting near fiat money; that the war might cost $300,000,000,000; that even if the cost only gets up to $200,000,000,000 (appropriations already have reached $208,000,000,000) the question of the gold reserve becomes important.

"No," said Mr. Eccles. "There was a feeling that by increasing the price of gold, you recall, that the increase would be immediately reflected in increasing the price of goods. Well, of course, that, we all know, didn't work, so I say the question of the gold reserve doesn't have any relationship to the stability of value of the currency."

Mr. Smith: "Either bank currency or circulating currency?"

Mr. Eccles: "No, I don't think so."

Mr. Smith: "What then is the fundamental principle of the federal reserve banking act?"
