first dance having been judged a complete success at the center Wednesday evening when over 150 service men and hostesses enjoyed an informal dancing party.

Mrs. Helen Small, USO director, said today that invitations had been extended to the heads of all clubs, churches, civic and patriotic organizations in the city for their members to be present for the opening event. Others interested are urged to join in the celebration. Refreshments will be served from the canteen and a varied program of musical talent will be presented during the afternoon and evening.

The USO council urged the general public to come to the center Sunday and "get acquainted" so they will feel that it is "their center also." An expression of gratitude was issued to those who have donated services to completion of the center. Included in the list were Miss Audrey Davis, Philip Henselman, Frank Runtz, Leland Mentzer, A. R. Livingston, Union Pacific, Mrs. Elva Lough, Flowers Mattress company, W. J. Warner and Eva Reames.

Last evening senior hostesses gathered at the USO center and discussed duties of the group. Fire Chief Roy Elliott talked on incendiary bombs and the part of the senior hostesses can play in fire prevention by correct knowledge of methods in handling the situation. He suggested a course in first aid also for the senior group.

MORE CANADIANS
LAND IN ENGLAND

Somewhere in England, June 26—(AP)—Army camps in southern England, already bulging with Canadian soldiers, made room today for a fresh contingent of dominion troops landed from a convoy escorted safely across the Atlantic by United States warships.

Included in the contingent were thousands of infantry and artillerymen, airmen and reinforcements for armored units, assembled from a score of Canadian training centers.

There also were firemen and nurses, a sprinkling of technicians from British Honduras and a force of Netherland volunteers recruited in the dominion.
