Louisiana Girl Weds Lieut. Hunt In Church Setting

At a home wedding Saturday evening, June 13, at 7 o'clock at Breau Bridge, La., Miss Ann Broussard, daughter of Mrs. William Broussard, became the bride of Lieut. Cecil C. Hunt, Jr., United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. Hunt of this city.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. P. A. Borel of the Community church in a setting of white hydrangeas, cape jasmin and fern.

The bride chose a gown of white imported organdy with a large picture hat and illusion veil and carried a bouquet of orchids. The couple was unattended.

Mrs. Bourdier, the bride's mother, wore a gown of navy blue marquisette and a corsage of orchids.

Following the ceremony about 150 guests attended the reception. The bride first cut the cake with Mrs. Paul Angelle, Jr., completing the cutting and Mrs. Laurel Brownlee presiding at the urn.

For traveling Mrs. Hunt wore a beige suit with tan and brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

Lieut. and Mrs. Hunt spent a few days in New Orleans, then continued west by the southern route stopping at Juarez, Mexico, Los Angeles and San Francisco, Cal. They stopped a few days in this city with Lieut. Hunt's parents and are now in Portland where they have been feted at numerous social events by friends.

Mrs. Hunt was graduated from Southwestern Louisiana institute and is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. She has been teaching in the elementary department of the Breau Bridge high school.

Lieut. Hunt, a graduate of Hill Military academy, attended University of Oregon at Eugene where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was the first officer to receive his oath of office at Camp White.

A reception honored the couple at the Hunt home in this city last Monday evening with 150 guests attending. Among those present were Lieut. Hunt's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Inman of Eugene.

Presiding at the service table were Mrs. Theron Bean, Mrs. Vern Robinson and Mrs. A. B. Drury. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Dorothy Jenkins, Glenda Worth, Opal Barnhart, Irene Charley and Elida Dalley.

Former Medford Resident Weds In San Diego
