LIPPY DUROCHER IS BANISHED FOR TILT WITH UMP

Noisy One Also Given $50 Fine After Sunday Fracas —Brooks Add to Win List.

By Harold Claassen
Associated Press Sports Writer.
Leo Durocher, chief of the Babbling Brooks, earned the nickname of the All-American Out during his sojourn as a player in the American league but he is just plain "out" as boss of the Dodgers until Thursday.

The Brooklyn mouthpiece, who never says in 10 words what he can say as easily in 1,000, has been fined $50 and suspended for three days by President Ford Frick of the National league for his run-in with the umpires Sunday.

But he was within whispering distance at Philadelphia last night as the Brooklynists pasted another half game to their National league lead in one of the day's two major league games.

Squirms Loudly

Seated only 10 feet from the Dodger bench in a private box, he squirmed loudly until his charges came through with a six-run outburst in the ninth inning to quell the Philadelphia Phils before 8,666 Quakerites, 10 to 3.

In that frame the Dodgers batted all the way around to make sure that Ed Head, their rookie hurler, was successful in his fifth attempt to win his sixth game of the season.

Action was every bit as concentrated in the American league where the Cleveland Indians retained third place by shellacking the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 5. The Indians collected 17 hits off Lee Ross, Joe Haynes and Pete Appleton while Al Milnar, touched for nine hits and five runs in the first five frames, hurled perfect ball in the final four frames.

Fights Last Night

Short 1943 Season Sans Training Time Is Tigers' Proposal

Detroit, June 30.—(P)—The Detroit Tigers came to bat today with proposals that the baseball season of 1943 be reduced by two months and that the southern spring training program be abandoned.

Offering each as a war measure, General Manager Jack Zeller of the Tigers said he would present his ideas to the annual midsummer meeting of the American League Club owners in New York July 6.

"One dovetails into the other," Zeller said, "with the spring training to be carried on in the park at home during the period which now constitutes the first month of the playing schedule. Under Zeller's plan, the season also would finish a month earlier."

Zeller said he proposed elimination of the southern training out of a fear that there might be a housing shortage in the south as far as Major Leaguers were concerned next year in view of expanding military facilities. Furthermore, he said, there should be no intension on the army.

The Tiger boss mentioned, for example, that the government was taking over hotels Miami and Miami Beach, Fla., to house air corps trainees. He expressed doubt whether the Tigers' own spring base at Lakeland, Fla., would be available in 1943 because the town has become a training center for American and British pilots.

TOURIST PAMPHLETS

Salem, June 30.—(P)—The state highway commission published a 32-page pamphlet today designed to attract tourists to Oregon. One hundred thousand copies were printed, and the supply is expected to last two years.

STARS DISPLAY HITTING POWER AGAINST ANGELS

(By the Associated Press)

If Hollywood batsmen continue to pound out bunts it should not be long before the Stars emerge from next-to-last place obscurity in Pacific coast baseball.

The Stars won only two games of their seven-game series with the second-place Los Angeles club last week, but the two wins were impressive because of the display of Hollywood batting power.

This week the Stars entertain Seattle and Rainier hurling should provide a good test for the Hollywood stickmen. First game of the series is set for tomorrow evening to give the Rainiers time to get to southern California from Seattle.

The rest of the league teams are scheduled to play tonight.

Sacs Face Oaks

Sacramento, the current lead club mixes with the fifth-place Oakland team at Sacramento. The Solons have won 12 games in 15 starts against the Oaks this season.

At San Diego, the third-spot Padres meet the second-place Angels in a hot race for the runner-up position.

The Padres are continuing to experiment with twilight games and the first game of a Wednesday doubleheader will begin in late afternoon.

Portland, the last-place club which surprised fans by dividing a series with the Padres last week, is slated to test the wobbly fourth-place San Francisco Seals at the latter's home park.

The McDonald-Mihalik feud was more than aired on Lillard's weekly wrestling program at the armory last evening and before it was over McDonald was worse for wear after the Prince had tossed him out of the roped area injuring Sockeye who was unable to continue.

The match started clean but didn't end that way. McDonald used 10 revolutions of the air-plane spin, and a few other maneuvers to win the first fall with a body press.

In the next period there was a non-too friendly tussle when Sockeye Jack-the Giant-Killer attacked Prince with a stool and Referee Earl Yaskley came to the rescue. The Prince took the second fall when he picked McDonald up and tossed him out the ring, hitting Sockeye's back on the edge of the arena. Back he came only to be quickly pinned by the mighty Prince.

McDonald asked for a breathing spell but was unable to continue. It only took Blacksmith George Craig three rounds to put Broccoli Bob Kruse, out of commission in the second match. Although Kruse, the arm-lock expert from Oswego, usually starts the rough stuff, it was the anvil-ringer from Camp White that finished things up in grand style.

The first fall came in the first round with a hammerlock followed by Kruse taking the second with a wristlock and a body press to even things and give the crowd a bit of suspense. The third came in the third round when Craig kicked his way out of a wristlock and pinned Kruse with a body press until the sparks flew.

The opener was a clean and fast tussle with Irish Jim Casey and Pedro Brazil, the South American heavyweight champion, going to a draw. Their first ap-

Hot Clevelander Threatens Joe Gordon's Batting Reign

New York, June 30.—(P)—Les Fleming, the pudgy young man from Nashville who inherited the Cleveland first base job, is the hottest thing in major league baseball right now.

Fleming, who battered Southern Association fences for a .414 average last season, climbed 16 points last week to become the greatest threat to the continued reign of Joe Gordon, New York Yankees, as the leading batter in the American league.

While Gordon slipped from .367 to .363, Fleming rapped 12 hits in 18 official trips to the plate for an astounding average of .667 for the week. That barrage lifted him from fourth in the league race to second with a .346 figure.

The Brooklyn pair of Pete Reiser, center fielder, and Joe Medwick, left fielder, continued to dominate the National league although both fell off their previous pace.

Reiser, boasting an average of .356 a week ago, remains on top with .347 while Medwick holds second with .335.

Ernie Lombardi, Boston catcher, and Stan Musial, rookie outfielder for the St. Louis Cardinals, both showed big gains for the week, the former climbing to .325 and the latter to .320.

pearance in the Monday matches for some time, Casey took the first fall in the third round with three of his famous Killarney flips. Brazil came back with a body press that finished his four-leaf clover friend in the fourth round for the second fall.

The ugliest man in the business, the noted Swedish wrestler who is known as the Swedish Angel, will appear at the armory in a few weeks according to Mack Lillard, local wrestling promoter. Angel came to America after the opening of World War 2 and promises to stir things up a bit on the weekly wrestling programs.

SERAPHS RETAIN BATTLING HONORS

Los Angeles, June 30.—(P)—Los Angeles continued to grab top honors in Pacific Coast league batting in games played through Sunday, leading the circuit in team hitting and with three of its players heading the field in individual slugging.

The Angels team average was .281, with Sacramento next at .275. Among regularly appearing players, veteran Johnny Moore, with .363 in 56 games; Eddie Waitkus, with .334 in 84 games; and Barney Olsen, .331 in 84 games, pace the league. All are with Los Angeles.
