WELDING CLASSES BEING EXPANDED; ON 24-HOUR BASIS

With the formation of three new welding classes instruction in the defense welding classes is being offered 24 hours a day in Medford. Five classes are already in progress but a call for additional welders has been issued by the shipyards and men and women are being given employment at beginning wages of $1.20 an hour. E. H. Hedrick, head of the defense class program in Jackson county said today.

Completion of the class instruction takes from 150 to 250 hours depending on aptitude of the student. Hedrick explained that some are being taken by the shipyards with less than the required time if recommended by the instructor. Day classes, especially, are open to the women, with men being given preference in the early evening shifts.

New classes will start as soon as students are enrolled which will be in about two days. Registration may be made at the city school superintendent's office or by telephoning the office between 8 a. m. and 12 noon or 1 and 5 p. m. Word has been received from the shipyards that women welders are "doing a successful job."

The class schedule beginning midnight run: 12 midnight to 3 a. m. open to 14; new class; 3-6 a. m. full class; 6 to 9 a. m. open to three; 9 a. m. to 12 noon open to 14; new class; 12 noon to 3 p. m. open to 14; new class; 3 to 6 p. m. open to 3; 6 to 9 p. m. full; 9 p. m. to midnight open to 3.

Closing time for Classified Ads 9 a. m.—Too late to classify 12:30 p. m.
