

USO WOULD LIST SPARE BEDROOMS FOR SOLDIER USE

Accommodations For Men on Furlough and For Soldiers' Families Are Needed

United Service Organization officials said yesterday that many inquiries have been received during the past week by soldiers seeking rooms for their wives or parents who were arriving in the city, or soldiers passing through on furlough. The local USO center is asking townspeople who have a spare bedroom and are willing to rent to soldiers at a cost of not more than $1 per night to telephone addresses to the USO center.

Mrs. Helen Small, USO director, explained that inquiries received during the day are referred to the Chamber of Commerce housing committee and the military housing committee. However, many times housing is needed after these offices are closed and in order to cooperate with the local housing officials a file of available overnight housing is kept.

Need Volunteers
More volunteer workers are needed by the center. Those who can assist in any way are asked to telephone the center or stop at the building for a personal interview.

Mrs. Small explained that the USO center does not ask for outright donations. The national USO council has had in progress during the past week a nation-wide campaign to raise funds for the many centers throughout the country. But at times, Mrs. Small said, it is helpful for communities to offer personal services and small items to the centers, which are of no use to the individual home. She illustrated this point by mentioning donations which have come into the center recently, such as a piano, ping pong table, library books, magazines, decorations for the center, also club and individual supplies to the canteen in the form of punch cherries and cookies. Such items as these, she explained, ease the strain on the budget, allowing for needed expenditures elsewhere. Volunteer personal service is also of value to the center.

Among those the USO council listed for "thank you's" during the past week are Antioch school district for a piano; state forest service, transportation of piano; Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, ping-pong table; Hunt's ice cream shop for use of cans and cold room; Miss Marian Farrell, mixing 15 gallons of punch; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill donation of guitar to canteen, and Satch Bianchi and orchestra for music.

CLINE IS DENIED DAMAGE IN CRASH

A circuit court jury, deliberating four hours, late Friday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in the trial of the damage suit of Stephen J. Cline against the Pacific Greyhound Stages for $30,000 general damages and $1,500 special damages.

Also denied was the stage company's counter-claim of $5,500 against Cline for damage to the bus and loss of its use in the accident last July 14 involving the bus and Cline's automobile on the Pacific highway near Beal lane. Nine persons on the stage were slightly injured in the wreck and Cline was in the hospital for several weeks.

Representing the defendant was James Desendorf, Greyhound counsel from Portland. Attorney Otto Fohmayer and Don R. Newbury represented the plaintiff.

P.-T. A. Activities

A school of instruction for presidents of local Parent-Teacher units was conducted Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Puhl, county council president, by Mrs. Puhl and Mrs. J. K. Hoey, state vice president for this district.

Special instructions for each committee were given the presidents and it was announced that the presidents packet will be out in August. The contents should be studied carefully and committee material should be distributed at once to the various chairmen. Continuation of P.-T. A. activity throughout the summer months was urged. Especially through the medium of the war committee which has charge of defense preparations, including appointment of block mothers, safety training and recreational activities. The five summer round-up campaigns should also be carried through to completion so that local units may receive the certificates awarded by the national association.

A number of county committee chairmen were appointed during the afternoon. A complete list of county chairmen will appear at a later date.

The instructions given by Mrs. Puhl and Mrs. Hoey were received when they attended the recent meeting of the state board of managers and county council presidents school of instruction held in Portland.

A guest of honor at this meeting was Mrs. William Kletzer, national P.-T. A. president, who spoke on the subject of children in war time. Mrs. Kletzer cautioned against neglect of children employed in war work pointing out that the raising of good citizens is the greatest service that can be rendered the nation even though the job may be lacking in glamor. Mrs. Kletzer also emphasized the importance of maintaining the highest possible educational standards.

She stated that low salaries in rural communities are going into defense work and lack of good teachers will definitely handicapped rural children. Should closure of schools be forced there would be a sharp increase in juvenile delinquency.

Another guest at the Portland meeting was Ray B. Schwartz, speaking on surplus commodities. He explained that adequate quantities of surplus commodities will be available again this year but they will be stored in control depots. Transportation costs from these depots must be met by the organizations sponsoring the school lunch programs where the supplies are used. Mr. Schwartz urged that P.-T. A.'s and school boards take immediate steps to arrange for transportation so they may be sure of obtaining supplies when needed.

COMMON LABOR IS NEEDED AT CAMP
There is still much work to be done in the construction of Camp White, Major Theron W. Bean, area engineer, said Saturday in revealing that a shortage of manpower is developing at the camp.

There is need of common labor and also several hundred plumbers and steamfitters, according to the major who stated that over a month's work remains in most of the huge construction job.

H. P. Fredrikson, employment manager and labor coordinator for the cantonment stated that all men who stay on the job until their services are no longer required will be given a letter of recommendation if they will call at his office. Such a recommendation he pointed out, will prove helpful in securing employment on other defense projects.

SUGAR RATIONING ADVICE GIVEN FOR INDUSTRY, HOMES

Industrial and institutional users of sugar must make application at the rationing board before Monday evening if they wish to secure the full amount of sugar to which they are entitled, according to announcement by the board yesterday. Failure to file applications within the time limit will entail penalty of a smaller amount of sugar, it was stated.

The board also announced that there is ample sugar for all home canning needs, and it was urged that more fruit be canned at home this year than ever before in order to save the commercially packed fruit for the armed forces and for America's allies.

The board is still in need of volunteers to help in setting up auxiliary registry places for those seeking canning sugar certificates. There is urgent need for about 30 women to volunteer for three hours each day for about three days, the board officials said.

Nazis Permit News Of Bombing Damage To Reach Citizens

Bern, Switzerland, July 4.—(AP)—Germany, relaxing a strict press censorship, finally is beginning to tell her people of the damage caused by repeated RAF raids on the Rhineland and Ruhr districts in three years of war, especially the mass raids of 1942.

Hitherto, German accounts were confined chiefly to newspapers in the areas concerned, but since the bombing of Cologne, papers throughout the country have taken up the discussion.

Foreign correspondents in Berlin were requested not to report one article which appeared in Berlin under the title "Crime against Cologne."

The articles by stressing the necessity for preparedness, implied that Germany expected continued heavier raids in a British effort, as the Munich Nachrichten said, "To destroy the economy of the industrial heart of the Reich."

HAY BALING WIRE NOW HARD TO GET

Due to the fact many farmers of the valley laid in a supply of hay baling wire last fall and winter, few are without it now. County Agent Robert G. Fowler reported Friday. A few have been able to fill their wants by procuring small lots from Klamath county. The quota originally allotted for this county for July has been deferred until August, it was reported.

The county agent said due to priorities it was difficult to obtain farm material for harvesting needs at this time but stated there was serious shortage.

Harvest of the first crop of alfalfa and hay is being hampered by lack of sufficient help, many farmers operating with two wagons where in former years they had four or five.

dust off these PESTS with your DOLLARS

It takes less spray from machine guns and bombers to exterminate these vermin from within. Combating international pests is not cheap—no war is. Your dollars are vitally needed to help Uncle Sam do a thorough job.

If American farmers buy their proportionate share of WAR BONDS, they alone can finance 10,000 fighter planes this year. Think what a crop-dusting job an air fleet like that could do!

All-American believes: That WAR BONDS are today's best and safest farm investment. That American farmers, by buying WAR BONDS every market day, can make total victory the climax to total war.

The quickest and surest way to achieve it is for farmers themselves to take the leadership. That is the aim of the "Win-the-War Bond Contest," sponsored by All-American in cooperation with the U. S. Treasury Department.

FIVE HURT WHEN CARS COLLIDE ON SOUTH RIVERSIDE

Medford's first week end accident occurred Saturday at 1:25 a. m. when the automobile, driven by Mrs. Sybil Stambaugh, 214 Cottage street, struck broadside the sedan being operated by Jim Redmon, general delivery, at the intersection of South Riverside and Barnett road, city police reported yesterday.

The collision sent five to the Community hospital, one later being transferred to the city jail. Redmon, driving south on highway 99 attempted to make a left hand turn into Barnett road and was struck by the Stambaugh sedan which was driving north on the highway. Redmon reported to city police that he did not see the approaching car because the headlights were not on. The Redmon car was almost totally wrecked and the front of Mrs. Stambaugh's car was badly damaged.

Occupants of the Stambaugh car, who were reported by their attending physician to be recovering today included: Lieut. Theodore J. Wacuricio, Medford armory, who suffered lacerations across the nose and possible fracture of the nose; Mrs. Ann Moreau of Missoula, Mont., visiting Mrs. Stambaugh, injury to the neck; John E. Smith of 1214 West Main street, minor bruises and Mrs. Stambaugh received concussions and lacerations of the knee.

Redmon received fractured ribs, lacerations on the right leg and suffered severe shock.

Smith, who became abusive to the nurses at the hospital and was reported to have been drinking, was transferred to the city jail from the hospital after receiving medical attention.

The Burma Road was tentatively surveyed more than 100 years ago but was not opened until 1939.
