VARIED PROGRAM FOR SOLDIERS AT USO THIS WEEK

United Service Organization programs for the coming week offer military men a variety of entertainment. Tonight under sponsorship of the Toastmaster club with Orville Kingman as leader, a service group on public speaking will be organized at the center. Military men are urged to participate.

Dancing will be enjoyed from 8 until 10 p. m. in the Los Barillitos room preceded at 7 p. m. by a first aid meeting at the Girls Community clubhouse for junior hostesses.

La Conga instruction at the center will be a highlight of Tuesday's program and Wednesday evening an "Army Special"—USO party is scheduled.

Thursday evening is A. O. Bauman's amateur hour for selection of talent to perform on programs during the coming months. Friday, Little Theatre drama meeting will be held for service men and civilians at the Girls Community clubhouse, 229 North Bartlett street, and square dancing instruction will be given at 9 p. m. in the center. Saturday evening lists a floor show by Mr. Bauman's amateurs at 7:30 p. m., soldier sing at 8 p. m. and dancing at 9 p. m. The week will close with a symphonic hour Sunday at the USO center at 4 p. m. followed by the quiet hour with poems and thoughts by Rev. R. W. Coleman of the First Christian church at 5 p. m. Vesper service will be held at the city park at 5:30 p. m.

Several soldiers were entertained Sunday at the K. M. C. Neill home near Grants Pass yesterday under the auspices of War Service committee of Grants Pass and USO. Swimming, picnic, music and games comprised the program.

Comedy Team

Robert Benchley and Frances Gifford add to the hilarious entertainment of Walt Disney's full-length technicolor cartoon, "The Reluctant Dragon," which opens its first Medford showing at the Roxy theatre tomorrow night.

"Father's Son," starring John Littel, will be the companion feature on the twin bill which will be shown for three nights only.

Lum 'n' Abner

Lum and Abner, popular stars of the air waves, are at the Holly theatre in their second starring hit, "Bashful Bachelor," and record-smashing crowds attest to the continued popularity of Pine Ridge's most famous citizens.

"The Corpse Vanishes," with Bela Lugosi in the leading role, is the companion feature on the twin bill which will show to night and tomorrow night only.

"Juke Girl"

Capacity crowds greeted "Juke Girl," which stars Ann Sheridan with Ronald Reagan, when the picture opened its three-day run at the Craterian theatre yesterday.

The newest March of Time, "Men of Washington—1942," is an added attraction on the same program.
