Fishy Condition Left By British For Nazi Forces

Cairo, July 9—(P)—Fishy water, so unpalatable that no stomach can stand it, was all that the British left behind for the Germans to drink on the western desert.

This was the result of fishoil methodically poured into the wells at all oases. Although German engineers no doubt have cleaned the wells by now and made the water drinkable, it will keep its lingering taste of fish for months.

REYNOLDS RITES
FRIDAY AT 1 P. M.
Services for Joseph L. Reynolds, who passed away early Thursday morning, will be held in the Conger Funeral parlors at 1 p. m. Friday with Mr. Morris Murray officiating. Interment will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

EDITOR DENIED CHANGE
DRAFT CLASSIFICATION
New York, July 9—(P)—Ralph Ingersoll, 41-year-old editor and publisher of the newspaper PM, is being continued in class 1A for early induction into the army.

Less than 24 hours after the local draft board reheard the case, Col. Arthur V. McDermott, New York draft director, announced yesterday the board's decision not to defer the editor. No explanation was given for continuing the classification.

The Rocky Mountain canary is not a bird, but a burro, so dubbed by humorous prospectors because of the animal's raucous bray.
