YANKEE'S MARGIN OVER BOSTON CUT BY ST. LOUIS WIN

New York, July 11.—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns caught up with Ernie Bonham in the ninth inning today and staged a four-run rally that gave them the final game of their series with the New York Yankees, 5-2, after the American League leaders had won the first two by the same score.

With the second place Boston Red Sox kept idle by weather, the defeat sliced the Yankee margin to three and a half games.

Bonham, seeking his tenth victory, handcuffed the Browns on one hit through seven innings but wound up with his third straight setback and his fourth of the year when the visitors exploded their game-winning rally, although he yielded only five hits in all.

The big right-hander started weakening in the eighth when Glenn McQuillen tagged him for a pinch triple that brought in the first St. Louis run.

Then in the Ninth Harland Clift led off with a single. George McQuinn drew a pass and both advanced on Walt Judnick's sacrifice. Vern Stephens skipped a tricky bouncer through the box for the twice run and Mike Chartak's outfield fly brought McQuinn home and out the Browns ahead.

JOE CORBETT TO BATTLE SOCKEYE ON ARMORY CARD

Sockeye Jack McDonald will attempt to add the name of Joe Corbett to his list of wrestling victims in the main event of Monday night's armory mat card, and while the big ex-lodger is expected to be successful in this effort he will probably be forced to extend himself to the utmost.

McDonald, currently the number 1 grappler of Promoter Mack Lillard's contingent, following his defeat of Prince Mikhailis last week, figures he must give Corbett the works or forget about the match he wants with "The Angel," grotesque Frenchman who is slated to appear here July 27.

Lillard has stated that "The Angel" will be pitted against the best opponent available, and McDonald, desiring the match above all others, has made up his mind to go undefeated tomorrow night and the Monday following in order to retain his present top ranking among the current matmen.

Sockeye realizes full well that if he should lose to Corbett tomorrow night, and if Mikhailis defeats Broccoli Bob Kruse in the six-round middle event, that Mikhailis, instead of him, will gain favor in Lillard's eye and perhaps be given the match with "The Angel." For this reason McDonald is determined to dispose of Corbett, as rapidly as possible.

Joe will outweigh McDonald, but whether he can withstand the punishment he is certain to receive is a rather doubtful question. Corbett can punch and he can wrestle, and if McDonald starts punching Joe won't be mystified.

Mikhailis should have his hands full with Kruse, one of the best wrestlers now working opening Oregon.

Opening the card at 8:30 will be Soldier Joe Buccola, a newcomer, versus Cliff Olsen. Buccola is wrestling instructor at Hamilton field in California.

FALKENBURG, HIGH SCHOOL NET ACE, WINS TITLE ANEW

Philadelphia, July 11.—(AP)—Bob Falkenburg, 16-year-old Hollywood high school ace, regained the U. S. interscholastic tennis championship for California today, scoring an upset victory over top-seeded Frank Willett of Anniston, Ala., 3-6, 6-0, 6-3, 6-3.

His strength ebbing and his husky opponent still apparently fresh, Falkenburg, seeded fourth, played safe and careful tennis in the final set, reaching matchpoint three times before winning. Willett denied him an earlier matchpoint after the ball had crossed the net 41 times.

Falkenburg, U. S. boys' title holder, succeeds E. Victor Seixas of Penn Charter school, Philadelphia, as interscholastic champ. Seixas was ineligible this year. Bob Carothers, later killed in an automobile accident, won the title for California in 1940.

Willett, former national boys' indoor champion, had beaten Falkenburg's brother, Tom, in the semi-finals and trapped his opponent repeatedly today with lobs and powerful backhands.

Bob Tom Falkenburg later won the doubles champions, 8-6, 10-8, 6-4, beating Bruce Daniels and Don Skakle, of Dorchester, Mass., Academy.

The winner's purse was $20,000. The Woodward entry returned $3 for each $2 win ticket, $2.90 for place and $2.30 for show.

M'CORMICK FACES ABBOTT, WESTERN AMATEUR FINALS

Spokane, Wash., July 11.—(AP)—A couple of former golf champions, one now representing the U. S. army and the other the Los Angeles city fire department, will battle it out here tomorrow for the western amateur links title.

B. Patrick Abbott, serving at Lowry Field, Denver, will meet his former townsman, Bruce McCormick, in the 36 hole final for what amounts to the best amateur golf crown available this year and probably for the duration of the war.

Abbott reached the finals with a resounding 8 and 7 win today over Harry Givan of Seattle. Mr. McCormick had to fight harder for his victory, but he stuck with it to beat out Bill Welch of Houston, Tex., 2 and 1. Welch won the national public links title here a year ago and will be the boss of that big tournament until it is resumed at some future date.

Both Abbott and McCormick are former national public links champions, the former winning the title in 1936 and McCormick capturing it the following year.

Corp. Marvin (Bud) Ward, defending champion was eliminated Friday by Welch 2-up.

SLAVS WAGE WAR ON ITALY, NAZIS AND BULGARIANS

Istanbul, Turkey, July 11.—(AP)—Yugoslav patriots of General Draja Mihailovic are waging warfare on a considerable scale against German, Italian and Bulgarian forces from mountain strongholds in southern Serbia, Yugoslav official quarters here reported today.

The latest summary of the fighting, received from the Serbian front on May 29, said that after a fortnight of fighting the axis forces had failed to take a single point. In these operations the Yugoslavs were reported fighting Germans and Bulgars attacking from the east and Italians from the southwest.

The Yugoslav informants said that in the futile operations the axis employed an entire S. S. Blackshirt elite division, some German armored units, the 16th Bulgarian division and between two and three Italian divisions.

Another major battle was reported in progress in Croatia with some 10,000 of Mihailovic's troops standing off a vastly superior force of Croats, Germans, Italians and Hungarians. Here the Germans were using planes against the Yugoslav patriots.

VANCOUVER WINS IN FUNNY FINISH

Spokane, July 11.—(AP)—Time-hitting, mixed with a bit of comedy that wasn't funny to the losing team, gave the Vancouver Capilanos an 8 to 6 western International League baseball victory over the Spokane Indians tonight.

The comedy came in the first of the ninth and what should have been an easy out turned into three runs and a Spokane victory for Vancouver, Pitcher Paul defeat. With the sacks loaded Soderburg wild pitched and dashed for the plate as Catcher Kenny Myers scrambled for the ball. Myers tossed backward in the general direction of Soderburg and two runs came in while the pitcher was chasing the toss.

Vancouver 8 11 1

LIEBER OPPOSES PELICAN BENHAM IN TODAY'S GAME

The second game of the crucial two-tit series for the Oregon-California league leadership will be played this afternoon at the fairgrounds park, with Manager Dutch Lieber taking the mound for the Medford Craters against Kenny Benham, undefeated righthander of the Klamath Falls Pelicans. The fracas starts at 2:30 sharp.

Up to last night's contest, first in the series, Ernie Bishop's Pelicans boasted a one-game bulge over the second-place Craters. The Klamaths had won nine and lost three, the locals eight and four. Grants Pass is playing a two-game set at Dorris, Calif., this week-end, in the other league struggles.
