Former Medford Resident Weds In Eugene Rites

Word has been received here of the marriage June 28 in Eugene of Miss Irene Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Judy of Eugene, to Rev. James Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Webster of Buffalo, N. Y. The ceremony was read in the First Baptist church by the Dr. Vance H. Webster. The Judys are former Medford residents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and train. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and gardenias, tied with white satin ribbons.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gordon Brunton of Portland, who wore aqua blue marquisette and carried white asters and pink sweetpeas. Bridesmaids were Miss Lucy Crow of Portland and Miss Dorothea Parker of Eugene, who wore yellow marquisette gowns, with yellow flowers in their hair and carried yellow and white flowers.

Gordon Brunton of Portland was best man. Attendants for the bridesmaids were Harry Hewitt and Ernest Campbell, both of Eugene and ushers were Dale Kingsley, Herbert Gaskil, Leland Chase and Clifford Traviillon.

A reception followed in the church parlors during which time several recordings solos of Miss Helen Judy, sister of the bride, were played. Miss Lurline Wood sang during the wedding ceremony accompanied by Robert Gould, who also played the wedding march.

The couple left for Buffalo, N. Y., for a short visit with the bridegroom's parents and will make their home in Big Rock, Ill., where Rev. Webster is pastor of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Webster, Sr., was in Eugene for the wedding.

The bride, well-known in this city, attended Northwest Christian college in Eugene; Los Angeles Bible Institute and Northern Baptist Seminary in Chicago. She also worked at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. Rev. Webster is a graduate of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., and Northern Baptist Seminary in Chicago.

The bride visited relatives and friends in southern Oregon just prior to her wedding.

Friends Hold Bridal Shower For Miss Wilcox

Mrs. Delno R. Sloan and Miss Mary Jean Barnes entertained at the R. H. Wilcox home on June 24 at a shower for Miss Natalie Wilcox of Washington, D. C. Over 25 guests attended the affair and presented the bride with numerous gifts. Refreshments were served by the two hostesses and the evening was spent playing games and cards, opening the gifts and rewrapping them for express shipment to Washington.

The rooms were decorated with mixed pastel flowers and pictures of the guests, gifts and decorations were taken by Fred Wilcox and sent along with the surprise gift shipment.

Miss Wilcox, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Wilcox, is employed in the munitions division of the War Department in Washington, D. C., and will wed Donald M. Crooks of that city in September. Mr. Crooks is now in officers' training at Fort Benning, Ga.
