

"Broadway", Dramatic Picture With George Raft and Pat O'Brien, Opens

JANET BLAIR, NEW STAR APPEARS IN CRATERIAN DRAMA

Film Story Closely Follows Raft's Life—"Broadway" Is Stage Hit.

What might easily be mistaken for George Raft's own life story opens a three-day run today at the Craterian theatre with the first local showing of "Broadway." Pat O'Brien is Raft's co-star.

Raft is shown as he is today—a famous screen star—and the picture also traces his rise from an obscure "hooper" to his present status. O'Brien has one of his best roles as the "toughest cop on Broadway." It is interesting to note that, in the screen play, O'Brien repeats one of his greatest successes on the stage, having played the same role in the stage play.

Janet Blair, Life Magazine's favorite army-camp entertainer and model, has her first screen role in the romantic lead opposite Raft.

Basically, the story of "Broadway" is a highly exciting drama dealing with an ambitious hooper in a speakeasy who, on the eve of his big break, becomes involved in a gangland killing. Adding complications is a second killing to which Raft is likewise linked.

Staged largely backstage in a speakeasy on Broadway, the film gains momentum through the intervention of O'Brien, in the role of a clever detective, and the accumulating sidelights thrust into the plot as others become involved.

Setting and incident closely parallel those familiar to Raft during his earlier days on Broadway, when, after turning from professional fighting and baseball, he took up dancing as a career.

Holly Fans Favor Showing of Ayres "Kildare" Picture

By a vote of 93 per cent in favor of his return to a local screen, Lew Ayres—whose recent induction into Uncle Sam's medical corps has relieved the minds of his many fans—is at the Holly theatre for this afternoon and evening and Tuesday night in "Dr. Kildare's Victory."

The theatre will not have its regular performance tomorrow (Monday) night, being turned how! That lovable rascal stars in "Jackass Mail," a riotous western comedy-drama coming to the Craterian theatre Wednesday for a four-day run with Marjorie Main again as his side-winding sweetheart. Beery portrays another one of his would-be-crooked scamp roles as a worthless mail robber who becomes the hero of a mining town when he stays off a gang of high-jackers who try to beat him to the loot of the "jackass mail." Marjorie Main plays a honky-tonk entertainer with designs on Beery's anticipated over for the Christian Science lecture on that date.

When Ayres first hit the national headlines with his pacifist beliefs, theatres throughout the country immediately dropped the showing of the Kildare pictures. However, with his joining the medical forces, fans are again asking for his screen shows. In "Dr. Kildare's Victory," he portrays the young medic who defends an interne whose emergency operation on a patient results in the interne's dismissal by the hospital.

Lionel Barrymore plays Dr. Gillespie and Ann Ayres is the debutante patient whose operation creates a storm center.

"Atlantic Convoy," featuring Bruce Bennett, John Beal and Virginia Field in an adventure-packed story of terror on the high seas, is the companion feature on the twin bill.

Labor-management committees now are boosting production in more than 900 war plants.

Zazu Pitts in Hilarious Holly Comedy

Zazu Pitts accepts a boiler-maker cocktail from Roger Pryor and turns from a timid gal into a gangster's moll with a trigger-twitch in "So's Your Aunt Emma," hilarious comedy which comes to the air-cooled Holly theatre for Wednesday and Thursday nights as the

In Army Drama

Not since the days of "Ben Hur" and "Birth of a Nation" has the Rialto theatre witnessed such thrills and action as displayed in "Ten Gentlemen From West Point," which opened Friday to capacity crowds and which, according to all indications, will continue to pack crowds into the popular Main street showhouse until the engagement closes Thursday night.

George Montgomery and Maureen O'Hara have starring roles in the exciting story of America's famous "citadel of heroes."

AUSSIE AIR HERO OF STERN METAL

General MacArthur's headquarters, July 11—(P)—Wounded in the legs, 19-year-old Trevor Wise, Australian air gunner, doused flames aboard his bullet-plattered bomber, shot down an attacking Japanese zero fighter, then swam three miles to shore after his plane was forced down into the sea.

In "Mob Town"

Billy Hallop, as one of the Dead End Kids, talks it over with Officer Dick Foran in "Mob Town," starring the gutter hoodlums with the East Side Kids at the Roxy theatre for today and Monday night.

"Underground," a daring story which unearths fifth columnists and saboteurs, plays as the companion action feature with Jeffrey Lynn in the starring role.

Wise's gallant performance occurred recently when his squadron of American bombers was attacked by 18 zeros while returning from a raid on Lae, New Guinea.

Despite the loss of the use of his legs, he refused to climb aboard his plane's life raft because it was loaded to capacity with the crew's emergency rations and jungle gear.

DRIED PEARS GET NEW HIGH PRICE

San Francisco, July 11—(P)—New, higher prices for west coast growers who sell natural condition dried apricots and pears to the agricultural marketing administration for lend-lease and other uses, were posted here today by the AMA.

The new price for apricots ranges from 23 1/2 cents a pound for fancy jumbos to 15 1/2 cents for standard slabs.

There were intermediate prices for grades less choice than fancy but better than standard.

Dried pear prices were set at 14 cents a pound for extra standard quality, and 12 1/2 cents for standards.

The new prices will average about $380 a ton for dried apricots and $260 a ton for pears. These averages are about $40 a ton more than prices announced June 20.
