Billy Hulen Says:

Worthley Stars
In Two Contests
Against Klamath

Norm Worthley must be what the boys call a real "money player," for in that week-end Klamath Falls series, a series that saw the Craters twice pull out with heart-stopping one-run victories to take over the Oregon-California league leadership, the rifle-armed catcher had himself a time, both at the hitting dish and as regards defense.

The junior high coach, who was shifted in mid-season from shortstop to the receiving post and who, incidentally, has been practically terrific wearing the so-called "tools of ignorance," was one of the principal reasons why the Craters bopped their chief rivals in both tilts.

In Saturday night's opener, Worthley whaled a triple and double in five trips. In Sunday's affair he belted two doubles and a single in five chances. This adds up to five blows in 10 tries—a cool .500 average for the set—and, the beauty of those three doubles, one triple and one single is that each and every one of them figured in producing a run. And, brother, runs were at a premium those two nip-and-tuck ball games.

Worthley's first blow Saturday night, a triple, drove in Swaryck with the first tally of the game, and a moment later the triple scored on an outfield fly. His double in the same fracas, coming in the last of the ninth inning, put the winning run on base, for Worthley scored on a wild pitch after going to third on Wray's infield blingle.

His plate work was even more effective in Sunday's contest. In the first inning he doubled and scored on Wray's double for the first Medford run. In the seventh he gave the Craters a 3 to 1 lead by pasting his second double to score Lieber, who had walked. Then, in the ninth, with the score tied at 3-3, he followed Swaryck's single with another that put the latter on second, in position to score the winning run on Wray's clout.

Besides making life miserable for the Messrs Virgil Haynes and Kenny Benham, Pelican pitchers, Worthley turned in a pair of beautiful defensive games Saturday night Hampton, who had singled tried to steal second, and Norm fired him out by three feet.

In the same game he would have cut down another base-stealer—Bishop in the ninth—but Swaryck was slow in covering second and the ball went into centerfield. But, the best Worthley play of the series occurred in the ninth inning of the Sunday clash when, after tagging out Bishop at the plate when the latter got trapped off third, he straightened up and shot the ball to Swaryck at second to catch Hampton off the base and complete a double play that retired the side. Importance of this operation can't be underestimated, for the score was tied at the time and one more Klamath run MIGHT have given the Pelicans the contest.

Yes, Worthley enjoyed a swell series, and if he continues at his present pace local fans will forget all about Frankie Roelandt. For that matter, he has a better throwing arm than Roelandt and is probably as good a receiver. Until the last series, however, he hadn't been hitting at Roelandt's last years .400-plus pace.

Norm's five for 10 boosted his batting average from .303 to a lousy .349, biggest gain recorded by any of the Crater regulars. Manager Dutch Lieber, although dropping from .426 to .396, continues to head the locals with Pvt. Joe Dickinson, pitcher, next at .385. Individual averages follow:

	AB	H	Avg.
Lieber	53	21	.396

Yankees Increase Lead With 4-3 Victory Over Detroit

GOMEZ PITCHES FOUR-HIT BALL IN GOING ROUTE

Nats Jolt Cleveland With
7-0 Blanking—A's Edge
White Sox in 11 Frames.

By Judson Bailey
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The American league has just suffered another chill in the region of its pennant race.

The New York Yankees beat down the Detroit Tigers again yesterday 4-3 and the Washington Senators surprisingly shut out the Cleveland Indians 7-0 in a night game.

These results, coming as they did on the heels of the Boston Red Sox' double somersault before the St. Louis Browns Sunday, placed an emphatic damper on whatever rivals were rash enough to think the world champions were collapsing.

All season long Detroit has been the most troublesome of the Yanks' opponents and the Tigers were tough to handle yesterday even though Lefty Gomez held them to four hits and fanned seven while going the route for the second time this year.

Gomez pitched one-hit ball for six innings, but in the first frame he walked one batter, hit another, made a wild pitch and then walked two more to force in a run. In the seventh he gave three successive singles to load the bases and then escaped with one run trickling across on a forceout and another on a fly.

Seven Games Behind
The Cleveland Indians, who had won four straight and 11 of their last 14 (excluding a tie), meanwhile suffered a rude jolt at the nation's capital and saw their third place distance from the leaders swell to seven games.

Young Walter Masterson was the No. 1 boy for the Senators, holding Cleveland to three scattered singles while his teammates pelted three pitchers for 10 hits.

In the only other game, also a night session, the Philadelphia Athletics nosed out the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 11 innings.

Phil Marchildon allowed Chicago just eight hits and he started the winning rally in the 11th with a single after two were out. Mike Kreevich, who had hit his first homer of the year in the fifth, then waited out a base on balls from Johnny Humphries and Elmer Valo followed with a run-scoring single.

The only game scheduled in the National league, Philadelphia at Cincinnati, was postponed.

PCL CLUBS OPEN SPLIT SCHEDULE

(By Associated Press)
San Diego, Hollywood, Sacramento and Oakland are in for plenty of travel to fill dates for this week's split schedule of Pacific Coast league baseball.

The Padres open a three-night stand at San Francisco tonight when Los Angeles hosts the league-leading Solons.

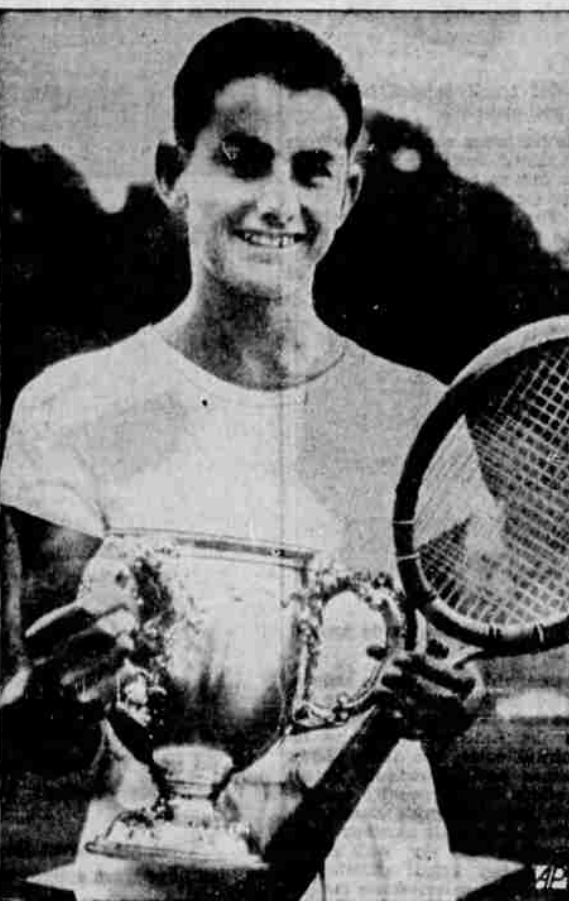

At the northern end of the loop, Hollywood takes on the Rainiers for a three-game series, while Oakland starts a strenuous round of nightly double-headers lasting through Thursday.

Starting Friday night, Seattle and Portland switch opponents for the remainder of the week as do the Seals and the Angels. Sacramento and San Francisco make up a game missed earlier in the year by playing a Saturday afternoon double-header.

Newark—Vinnie Vines, 150, Schenectady, N. Y., outpointed Irish Ossie (Bulldog) Harris, 159, Pittsburgh (10).
Baltimore—Chalky Wright, 130, Los Angeles, won by technical knockout over Lou Transparenti, 127, Baltimore (4).

OAKS NIP SALEM IN EXHIBIT, 5-4

Salem, Ore., July 14.—(P)—A tenth-inning tally scored on Joe Glenn's single gave the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast league a 5-4 victory over the Salem Senators of the Western International league last night in an exhibition baseball game.

Salem opened scoring with two tallies in the second but the Oaks scored four in the third. The Senators outthit the Oaks, 11-7, and forced the game into overtime with a ninth inning score.

Oakland 5 7 1
Salem 4 1 0

Ray Weston Captures State Publix Title

Portland, July 14.—(P)—Ray Weston, Oregon State college star golfer, is the new Oregon public links champion.

Playing for Peninsula club of Portland, he posted a 54-hole total of 287, four less than Marty Leptich and Bob Hofer, both Portland. His last round, played Sunday, was a 75, three over par, the only round on which he went over regulation figures.

40 TRAPSHOOTERS PARTICIPATE IN SUNDAY PROGRAM

Forty trapshooting enthusiasts turned out for the Medford Gun club practice shoot at the Snowy Butte Fourcorners field Sunday and blazed away until 4 o'clock at more than 2,000 targets. Shooters included Camp White officers and contestants from Klamath Falls, Yreka and Grants Pass, in addition to the usual large attendance from Central Point and Medford.

The best 50's at 16 yards found Mendenhall, Croissant, Jantzer and Thorp with 48's, Croissant having one 25 straight. In second place were Brown and Jim Ross with 47's. In the handicap Daniels had a 25 straight with Clarence Eads second with 23.

The miss and out was a hotly contested event with Thorp of Central Point winning the purse and Jantzer the runner-up. Jantzer had a 24 at skeet and Lane of Yreka a 23 for second place. Lemery, Brown and Muse tied for third place with 22's.

The club will shoot again next Sunday at 10 o'clock. The public is invited. On account of the grand Pacific coast championship at Salem the club will suspend its regular practice shoot on July 26.

Ward and Abbott Tie In Exhibition Match

Spokane, Wash., July 14.—(P)—Corp. Marvin (Bud) Ward, national amateur golf champion who just lost his western title, and Corp. B. Patrick Abbott, the new western champion, finished all even in an 18-hole exhibition yesterday over the western tourney course.

Ward held a one-stroke advantage in medal score in the Army Emergency Relief fund benefit, with a 68, four under par.

O.S.C. APPLICATIONS OVER PREVIOUS YEAR

Corvallis, July 14.—(P)—Advance applications for admission to Oregon State college are 4.2 per cent greater than last year at this time, Registrar E. B. Lemon reported today.

Although the figure indicates a large freshman class, Lemon said the application increase might be due to earlier-than-usual filing of transcripts from Corvallis high school.

Joe Gordon Regains American Bat Lead With Mark of .347

New York, July 14.—(P)—Joseph Lowell Gordon, the flashy second baseman of the New York Yankees, never has batted higher than .284 in his four terms in the American league, but he is not giving up in his quest of the 1942 batting crown.

The flash has led the hitters in the junior circuit most of the season, but a slump in the last couple of weeks made him surrender the lead for awhile.

Yesterday Gordon showed that he still is in the running, however, by banging out two doubles and two singles for the Detroit Tigers and thus regained the No. 1 spot among the American league hitters with a .347 average.

This was three points better than Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox and 11 points ahead of Boston's Bobby Doerr, who held third place in the ranking.

Pete Reiser of the Brooklyn Dodgers, last year's National league champ, continued to pace the senior circuit with a .356 percentage, comfortably ahead of teammate Joe Medwick, who sported a .343 mark.

ROELANDT'S TEAM LICKED IN MEET

Silverton, July 14.—(P)—Silverton's defending champions eliminated the Portland Firemen from the State semi-pro baseball tournament last night with a 3-1 victory.

Lefty Day set the Portlanders down with three hits. The Red Sox collected eight off Fireman John Bubalo, including triplets by Kolb and Whitley.

Silverton will meet Marine Electric tonight, the winner to play the undefeated Portland Boilermakers Wednesday night for the championship.

Only Four Net Duels Played in Tournament

WHIRLAWAY NEARS MONEY-WIN MARK

Boston, July 14.—(P)—The turf will hail a new money-winning champion out of the same event that enabled the current titlist to set sights on his golden goal if Warren Wright's famed Whirlaway can race a mile and an eighth to victory tomorrow in the $50,000-added Massachusetts etts handicap at Suffolk Downs. The four-year-old Whirlly, who is only $27,244 shy of the all-time earnings of $437,730 made by Seabiscuit in his six years of campaigning, faces the same difficulties that the latter encountered while winning the Massachusetts in 1937.
