Meet Tonight—A civilian defense air raid precaution class for USO volunteers will be held at the senior high school auditorium tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

To Reshingle—Dr. L. D. Inskeep made application at the city inspector's office yesterday to reshingle his residence at 2401 Hillcrest road at a stated cost of $200.

Held In Jail—Frank Archibald Roberts of this city is being held in the city jail on a charge of burglary. He is charged with entering the Reliable Cleaners Sunday night and taking a pair of trousers and coat. Prior to that, he told city police that he had removed a billfold from a coat in a local cafe and later the same evening picked up a bicycle on a lawn and started to ride it way until someone turned a spotlight on him.

Minor Collision—Webster Anderson of 2218 Capitol avenue and Clarence M. Van Hout of Gold Hill, were operators of automobiles involved in a minor collision six miles north of Medford on Bybee road yesterday at 6:30 p. m. Anderson was driving a passenger car and Van Hout a truck, a report on file stated. Another minor collision involved the automobiles of A. S. Fleischner, 325 West Third street and L. G. Bradley, no address listed, at the intersection of Ivy and Sixth streets yesterday at 5 p. m.

To Coast—Van R. Gilbert of 135 North Holly street and Maynard Bush of 44 North Peach street left yesterday for Yachats and other coast points, where they plan to spend a week.

Returns Home—Miss Willette Lindley returned to her home Monday after a visit in Portland. She was accompanied by Miss Peggy Blenis of Portland who will be a guest at the Lindley home for a short time.

Back From Portland—Robert Holmes, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific railway with offices in Medford, has returned here after spending a few days on business in Portland and Roseburg.

Street Widened—North Oakdale avenue between West Main and Sixth street has been widened eight feet on the west side. The improvement is nearly completed, according to the acting city superintendent, Frank Rogers.

"Inbetweeners" Dance—Boys and girls of the eighth to eleventh grades are invited to the "Inbetweeners" Marine dance to be held Friday from 8 until 10:30 p. m. at the Lincoln school gymnasium, it was announced today.

Traffic Violations—A. K. Morris paid a $5 fine in the city police court yesterday on a charge of parking in an alley. E. Q. Wilson paid $10 fine for violation of the basic rule and Grace Smith paid $5 fine today for failure to stop at a stop street.

Marriage Licenses—Among Jackson county residents who made application for marriage licenses in Reno yesterday were Ario Bianchi of this city and Geneva Cullip of Ashland; Jack C. Langston and Jacalyn Faye Thurman, both of this city, according to an Associated Press wire report.

Many Forfeit Bail—John Thomas McBride, Walter Gordon Farmhouse, Earl Cooper, Harry M. Fisher, and William Frank Myrre forfeited $10 bail in the city police court yesterday on charges of being drunk. Alfred Harrison Neal was fined $10 or five days in the city jail and William Wesley Philp and Henderson Gates each were fined $10 on a similar charge.

Summer Meet—Cub Pack No. 8 of Washington school will hold its first summer pack meeting and achievement council Wednesday evening at Jackson Hot Springs. Each cub, with his parents and friends will bring his own luncheon. A well-planned program will follow the picnic which will be served at 6 p. m. After the cubs have had a swim, awards will be given. All are invited.

House Entered—Mrs. Arthur Davis of 402 South Central avenue, reported to city police yesterday that someone gained entrance to her home yesterday afternoon while she was in the back yard and removed cash from her pocketbook, leaving the pocketbook on the front porch. The intruder entered the house by means of unhooking the screen on the front door, the city police report stated.

Returns From Trip—Glen Woodridge of Grants Pass, fishing guide, returned Sunday from a three-day boat trip down Rogue river from Grants Pass to Gold Beach, and reported that salmon are schooling at the mouths of the creeks to get in the cold water. A few steelhead are being caught in the lower part of the river, but salmon fishing is slow at the mouth of the river, he stated. Woodridge has made seven boat trips to the mouth this spring and summer.

GIRL SCOUTS AID
RATIONING BOARD

Girl Scouts joined the ranks of volunteer workers at the Jackson county rationing board offices yesterday and are helping with filing and typing. Hobart Price, executive secretary of the Jackson county rationing board said today. Although many older Girl Scouts are assisting other volunteer workers will be appreciated.

Price also explained today that while sugar canning certificates may be secured at the rationing board in 15 minutes now, due to added office help, the certificates will still be mailed to registrants if desired. Those who wish to have their certificates for sugar canning mailed to them may do so and they will be received a few days after applications are filed, it was explained.

Phoenix

Phoenix, July 14 (Sp)—Miss Alma Phyllis Wier and Austin Caldwell were married at the Brownrigg home Sunday at 6 p. m. by the Rev. M. Brownrigg. Attendants were Miss Lola June Cobbleigh and Albertus Wier. Also present were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Wier, Mrs. B. A. Montgomery and Mrs. Brownrigg. The newlyweds will reside in Medford.

Phoenix Presbyterian Missionary will hold their annual picnic on the spacious grounds of the Robert W. Frame home Thursday. All Missionary and Ladies Aid members are invited. Luncheon will be served at noon and besides the picnic lunch, all attending are asked to bring their own service.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Lakonen have returned to Beaverfoot after several months residence here. Also leaving for the northern part of the state were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blivins who have resided at the Cottage Court for several months.

Woodford Turpin left for Portland a week ago Sunday and on Tuesday reported for work at the shipyard. Mrs. Turpin is in Portland now also, but will return to Phoenix before moving up permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Thurston motored to Prospect Sunday to visit relatives.

Miss Patricia Purry returned from the Oakland-San Francisco district where she has vacationed for the past three weeks. She was a guest of Miss Marjorie Kettwell, former Phoenix resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. John Daugherty of Ashland were Sunday guests at the A. E. Stevens home.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ Hill of Klamath Falls visited friends in the community Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wier and family of Pasadena, Calif., have been visiting the S. R. Wier family. The group spent the Fourth at Oregon Caves.

Mrs. A. H. Dudley and daughters and Mrs. A. E. Stevens and children left Monday night for a several days vacation at Crescent City, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sutton of Oakland, Calif., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morris, and also visiting the Delbert Cook family.

Of interest to many Phoenix residents is news received lately of the death of Mrs. S. V. Hodges in Otto Wyo. Mrs. Hodges passed away April 26 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ula Christie. She will be remembered as having made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Crawford, on Fourth street until last August when she went to Wyoming. Mrs. Crawford left Phoenix in early December and passed away in Arizona shortly after.

Bernard Sauer and Bill Manscom left by bus last night for Cheyenne, Wyoming with Dick Hines who has been visiting relatives here for the past month. They plan to return for the pear harvest.

In Lovable Role

Wallace Beery has the most lovable role of his career in "Jackass Mail," roaring story of California's turbulent mining days of 1849, which comes to the Cool Craterian theatre tomorrow for a four-day run. Beery plays another of his would-be bad roles as a bad man who becomes a hero when he stops a gang of cut-throats from robbing the "jackass mail."

Sings At Rialto

Janette McDonald is at the Rialto theatre today for a three-day run opposite Nelson Eddy in "I Married An Angel." The eagerly anticipated picture surrounds the singing stars with a fine cast and a host of new songs. Among those featured are Edward Everett Horton, Binnie Barnes, Reginald Owen and Douglass Dumbrille.

Roxy's Funsters

Abbott and Costello open a three-day run today at the Roxy theatre in their funniest comedy yet, "Keep 'Em Flying," in which they join the army air corps to do their bit for their Uncle Sammy.

Martha Raye plays opposite the funsters. Most of the background shots were filmed in Medford and vicinity with Table Rock looming up in the air scenes.

"Strange Alibi," plays as the added feature.

Helium was first used in dirigibles late in 1921.
