O. L. DAVIS RITES HELD IN ASHLAND

Funeral services were held Monday in Ashland for O. L. Davis, who passed away Saturday at his home in that city. The services, at the Litwiler Funeral home, were conducted by the Rev. D. D. Randal of Medford, assisted by the Rev. Earl Downing of Ashland.

Mrs. Pete Burreson of Gold Hill, and Mrs. A. B. Collet of Grants Pass, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and Mrs. Buford Howard of Ashland sang "The City Four Square."

Mr. Davis was born in Paris, Lamar county, Tex., April 2, 1882. His mother died when he was four years old and his father a few years later.

He came to Medford in July, 1909 and was foreman of the Rogue River Canal Co. for four years and helped run the irrigation ditches on the desert northeast of Medford. Later he went to Grants Pass and was foreman of the River Banks ranch for over four years.

He was married to Miss Ach-sah E. Davis, October 7, 1914, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Minnie C. Chase near Grants Pass.

Mr. Davis was foreman of the Charles Dunlap place in Table Rock for four years. He was employed in orchards for several years in Sams Valley and Table Rock. The last four years he has resided in Ashland.

His son, Private Monroe E. Davis, stationed at Sheppard field, Tex., obtained a furlough to come home and see his father and was able to be with him until he passed away and remained for the funeral.

Other survivors are his wife, his four daughters, Mary Esther, Etta B., Olive M. and Ida Belle; one brother, J. W. Davis and two sisters, Mrs. Hulda Larimore and Mrs. Olive M. Bradley of Wasola. One sister, Mrs. George Roark, lives at Phoenix, Ariz. One niece, Mrs. Lola Adolph and her three children reside in Ashland.

Portland, July 15.—(AP)—A Portland street will be named after Col. Joseph L. Stromme, Portland army air base commander ordered to a new post. Mayor Earl Riley so announced yesterday in presenting a watch to Col. Stromme on behalf of the city council.

CECIELA HOLMES, PIONEER, PASSES

Cecilia Mary Brown Holmes, 76, a pioneer resident of Southern Oregon, where she has lived all of her life, passed away at Eagle Point, Ore., Tuesday after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Holmes was born at Jacksonville, Jan. 6, 1866.

She attended the schools of Southern Oregon, and was united in marriage to S. B. Holmes on Sept. 16, 1896. Mr. Holmes passed away Aug. 26, 1930.

Mrs. Holmes is of a pioneer family of eleven children, four of whom have preceded her in death. Surviving are four brothers, R. G. Brown, W. H. Brown and J. F. Brown, of Eagle Point; M. J. Brown of Medford, three sisters, Mrs. Cora O'Brien of Washougal, Wash., Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy, of Eagle Point, and Mrs. Harry Carleton, of Ashland.

Funeral services will be conducted from Perl Funeral Home Thursday at 2 P. M. Rev. Keith Fields officiating. Interment will take place in Jacksonville cemetery.

Palbearers, all longtime friends of the family, will be William E. Perry, Ray Harnish, P. J. Robinson, Walter Young, Harve Stanley and Wilbert Ashpole.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of Lory J. Trusty wish to thank their friends and neighbors for their expressions of kindness and sympathy, also for the beautiful floral offerings. The Trusty Family.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour 3 pints of bile into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest, it may just decay in the bowels. There gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk. It takes three good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 3 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10c and 25c.
