Children Suffocate In Icebox Hideaway

Merced, Calif., July 17—(AP)—Two small children seeking a good hiding place during a game of "hide-and-seek" closed themselves into a big empty icebox and suffocated last night while their parents and friends searched frantically for them.

Little Carroll Servaes, 4, and her brother Teddy, 3, were dead when they finally were found more than an hour later.

GOOD RESULTS IN HANKOW BOMBING

Chungking, July 17—(AP)—A United States bomber attack on Hankow, great Japanese inland base on the Yangtze river, yesterday scored "very satisfactory results," a communique from Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced today.

Fighters escorted the bombers in the raid on Hankow and also in another on the Nanchang airbase on July 3, the communique said.

The fighter-escorted bomber attack on the Hankow waterfront was the fourth by the United States air force in China since it took over the work of the flying Tigers of the AVG. The previous attacks on the river port were on July 1, 2 and 6.
