Zonta Members Hear Mrs. Fontaine Talk On Colombia

Zonta International held their regular luncheon meeting Monday, at the Hotel Jackson. Mrs. Penny Fontaine was a guest of the club and gave an interesting talk on South America where she lived for some time in Bogota, Colombia.

She told of life and customs, stressing the point that this is a country of many contrasts between the upper and lower classes of people. The peons have no education and no recreation and are always in their own class. They are very dishonest, have no fuel to eat most of their food without cooking. There is also much poverty among the peons.

The upper class Colombians are well educated and speak many languages. They are also great travelers, Mrs. Fontaine said.

Much American merchandise is shipped to South America where it is sold for exorbitant prices to the natives.

The luncheon table was decorated with South American dolls and mementoes which Mrs. Fontaine brought to the states with her. She showed the Zontians many pictures depicting life in countries to the south of the United States.

A Victory corsage, "the newest thing in flowers", adorns the jacket lapel of Miss Florence Dornin, lovely Powers models of New York. Cellophane covered war stamps tied with red, white and blue ribbons form the bouquet. This new patriotic fashion trend, designed as a novelty to promote the sale of War Savings Bonds and Stamps is sweeping the country. Like real flowers, the Victory corsage should be worn only a few times. Then the stamps should be pasted into a war stamp album to aid in the purchase of a bond.
