SOCKEYE, PRINCE
VIE TONIGHT FOR SHOT AT "ANGEL"

Winner Faces Huge Frenchman On Next Program—
Brazil, Pete In Semi-Final

The shadow of Maurice "The Angel" Tillet will hover over the armory's grappling ring tonight when Sockeye Jack McDonald and Prince Selaki Mihailik collide head-on in the "rubber" match of their savage rivalry, a rivalry that for sheer ferociousness has never been equaled in the local maul.

For, to the winner of tonight's one-hour main event, will go the dubious honor of next Monday evening climbing through the hemp to face the 269-pound Tillet, a grotesque Frenchman with an oversized head who is currently the greatest drawing card in American wrestling.

McDonald, afraid of nobody with only two arms and two legs, actually wants to meet "The Angel." Two years ago Sockeye lost to the gigantic Frenchman in a brutal struggle in the Minneapolis auditorium, and he wants revenge. McDonald is confident that he can whip Tillet, and desires the chance to prove it.

Prince Wants Match
Mihailik is equally desirous of clashing with the French monstrosity, but for a somewhat different reason. Appearance of "The Angel" here is certain to attract the biggest crowd of the year, and the larger the attendance the more folding currency Promoter Mack Lillard dishes out to the main-eventers. McDonald also is aware of this angle, which makes him doubly determined to wallop the Prince and get that Tillet match.

The history of McDonald-Mihailik rivalry is short but sensational. A month ago Mihailik defeated McDonald when the latter hurt his back on the edge of the ring as he sailed through the ropes. Two weeks later McDonald evened the count in a brawl the likes of which had never been seen here before. It was simply a slugging match from start to finish.

Tonight's party is expected to follow the same pattern. McDonald won't waste time trying to wrestle, and neither will Mihailik. They'll go out there and fire punches until one or the other drops.

Supporting the headline match are two fine prelims. Pedro Brazil will face Pete Belcastro in the six-round semi-windup, and Irish Jim Casey will take on Soldier Joe Buccola in the four-round opener, starting at 8:30 sharp.

PORTLANDERS COP SEMI-PRO CROWN
Silverson, July 20—(P)—The Portland Bullmackers wrestled the Oregon semi-pro baseball title from Silverson, 1941 winner, 3 to 1 here last night.

Duke Windsor, winning pitcher, kept seven Silverson hits well scattered, fanned 12 batters and was named outstanding player in the tourney.

Although the winner qualifies the Bullmackers for the national semi-pro tourney, there was some question of the team entering since most of the men are employed in Portland shipyards.

The score:
Bullmackers..... 3 4 4
Silverson..... 1 7 2
Windsor and Barker; Day and Riesgo.

Diz Dean Lasts
Two Innings In
Minor Loop Game

Superior, Wis., July 20—(P)—Dizzy Dean got a cold reception in a two-inning pitching job in a northern league game yesterday.

Of Diz started on the mound for Superior against Winnipeg and the boys from Manitoba found the one-time Cub and Cardinal hurler for five hits—good for three runs.

But Diz didn't leave the game when the Blue put in their regular pitcher—he played in the outfield. Winnipeg won, 6-3.

Ryder Cuppers Rout Challengers, 10-5; $25,000 to Red Cross

DETROIT, July 20—(P)—The American Ryder cup squad holds a 2 to 1 advantage over challenge teams in the war-time domestic version of what was golf's big international series.

After Craig Wood's cuppers had completed a 10 to 5 rout of Walter Hagen's challengers yesterday by splitting the ten singles matches, Fred Corcoran, P.G.A. tournament manager, said the matches would be played again in 1943, most likely in Detroit. The Red Cross will receive $25,000 from this year's show; two previous events here yielded $30,000.

As the cupper swept all five foursome matches Saturday, there wasn't much chance for the challengers over the 6,957-yard Oakland Hills course in yesterday's singles. But Henry Picard, Sammy Byrd and Light-horse Harry Cooper won their matches, and four other challengers broke even. The cup team victors were Wood, Ed Dudley and Sergt. Vic Ghezzi.

FIREMEN SHAVE EUGENE'S LEAD
Eugene, July 20—(P)—The Portland Firemen defeated the Eugene Athletics, 7 to 4, in an 11-inning game yesterday, shaving the Athletics' State league lead to two games.

Two Eugene errors allowed the bases to fill in the final inning, and John Bubalo cleared the bags with a triple.

Carter Favorite in Washington Net Meet
Seattle, July 20—(P)—The 51st annual Washington tennis championship tournament opened today with Nick Carter, San Francisco, who retained his Pacific northwest singles title in Tacoma yesterday and won the Oregon state title in Portland a week ago, seeded No. 1.

Carter was the runner-up for the state crown last year, losing a grueling five-hour match to Emory Neale, Portland, who will not be back to defend his title.

Sunday Results
At Dorris 9, Medford 17.
At Grants Pass 1-4, Klamath Falls 17-7.

Pvt. Joe Dickinson, with terrific hitting help from his Crater teammates, beat the Dorris, (Cal.) Lumberjacks, 17 to 9 at Dorris Sunday afternoon to notch his second Oregon-California league victory in as many days and keep Medford a full game ahead of the Klamath Falls Pelicans, who nabbed a twin bill from Grants Pass at Grants Pass.

The soldier righthander, after going the route in Saturday's twilight fray, won by the Craters, 10 to 4, stepped into the breach in the second inning of yesterday's contest and yielded only seven hits from then on out. Driving home last night he remarked he was ready to pitch a night game.

Manager Dutch Lieber started on the mound for the locals and, after giving up two tallies in the first inning, was relieved by Lefty Al Winter in the second. Winter walked the first two men to face him, and with two balls on the next latter Dickinson came to the rescue and went the remainder.

Meanwhile the Craters were unleashing their most savage battling attack of the year, pounding out 22 hits, including five home runs and three doubles to make things easy for their big righthander.

Waite belted two round-trippers and Madden, Fawcett and Lieber whaled one each. Waite and Madden also hit doubles, as did Worthley. Madden's homer was his third of the series, he having socked a pair in the Saturday game. Lieber hit four for six Sunday and four for four Sunday.

Bill Cecil, Dorris hurler, lasted until the eighth inning, when he was relieved by McKinney, who was shelled for five more Crater runs in the ninth. Goldbar hit a homer for Dorris.
