

Boston Braves Capture 17-Inning Struggle From Chicago Cubs, 4-3

OLD JOHN COONEY SINGLES ACROSS WINNING MARKER

Game Is Longest in Majors This Year—Dodgers and Cardinals Both Win.

By Judson Bailey
(Associate Press Sports Writer)

Underneath the sign that says "Braves Field" at the National league ball park in Boston there should be added a line "home of extra-inning ball games."

Marathons disguised as baseball are the specialty of the Braves just as home runs are the trademark of the New York Yankees, pitching of the Cincinnati Reds, speed of the St. Louis Cardinals, etc.

For this reason that 17-inning struggle of the Braves and Chicago Cubs yesterday was bound to happen. It wasn't quite as historical as the 26-inning 1-1 tie between the Braves and Brooklyn in 1920, the most extended game in National league records, or the 20-inning battle with the Dodgers in 1940 which took five hours and 19 minutes to play—longest time of game in major league history.

But it was the longest game this season and the Braves won 4-3 with a unique finish that made it entirely satisfactory to the Boston fans. The Braves tied the score in the eighth with two runs and after eight more scoreless stanzas they loaded the bases with none out in the 17th on three successive bunts. Then old John Cooney stepped to the plate and rapped a smart single to right center to finish the fracas four hours and 17 minutes after it started.

Derringer Curbed
While this was going on the Brooklyn Dodgers curbed the Cincinnati Reds 8-4 with 12 hits in six innings against Paul Derringer.

The St. Louis Cardinals kept the Dodgers from increasing their National league lead, however, by bowling over the Philadelphia Phils 6-1 in a night game.

Three home runs and Buster Maynard's two-run pinch single in the eighth inning gave Carl Hubbell and the New York Giants a 6-5 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a twilight game from which Manager Frank Frisch of the Pirates was banished in the fifth inning.

The New York Yankees extended their winning streak to 10 games and Joe DiMaggio stretched his hitting string to 18 games in an 8-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

The Boston Red Sox dropped a 10-inning 5-4 decision to Chicago to let the Yanks slip another game ahead.

Judnich Homers
The St. Louis Browns were held to four hits by Luman Harris and Phil Marchiondi but beat the Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 on Walt Judnich's three-run homer in the fifth inning and a roundtripper by Harland Clift in the second.

The Detroit Tigers broke Buck Newsom's spell with a 6-4 triumph over the Washington Senators on the five-hit hurling of Hal White.

SWISHING SWEDE SETS NEW RECORD

New York, July 22.—(P)—Gunder Haegg, Mr. Swish of the Swedish tracks, right now apparently is as hot as the fires he helps put out.

On vacation from his duties as a fireman in the city of Gaele, Haegg has shattered four world records for distances from 1,500 meters to two miles in the past four weeks.

Last night, at Malmoe, Sweden, he clipped two-tenths of a second from the standard for the rarely run 2,000 meters. He was clocked in 5:16.4.

Previous to that he lowered the outdoor mile time to 4:06.2, the two-mile to 8:47.6 and the 1,500-meter to 3:45.8. All the times will be unofficial until approved by the international track group.

Hemsley Heats Up

Pitcher Lefty Gomes helped Rollie Hemsley (seated), cool off after he caught a doubleheader for the New York Yankees at New York. Hemsley was called from the Cincinnati Reds' discard heap to fill the gap when Buddy Roser went AWOL. Hemsley hurried to New York, lost sleep, caught the two games against Chicago and pounded out five blows in eight trips to the plate.

Amateurs Start Match Play In Tam O'Shanter Tourney

Chicago, July 22.—(P)—The Tam O'Shanter golf tournament entered its double phase today, with 64 of the nation's top amateurs wading through two rounds of match play while the professionals swung into action in an 18-hole qualifying test for their $15,000 medal play event beginning tomorrow.

All of the country's "name" amateurs survived the qualifying rounds the last two days. Only 16 of them still will be alive and kicking tonight.

As for the professionals, their qualifying test today did not concern the game's leading figures insofar as participation in the big money play starting tomorrow was concerned, all the big stars, men like Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan, qualified automatically through their past deeds. It strictly was an entrance exam for the "have nots" or the pro game.

A couple of players who were not even fleetingly considered in advance views of the amateur championship found themselves tied for the medal when the shooting ended last night. They were Johnny Lehman of Chicago, with 71-72-143, and John Holmstrom of Rockford, Ill., with 77-66-143.

Frank Stranahan, a confident young blond from Toledo, was next with 72-73-145, while bracketed with 146's were Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, the national champion; Bob Cochran of St. Louis and Johnny Goodman of Omaha. None of the five negro entrants qualified for match play.

OFFICERS OF 91ST ORGANIZE STRONG SOFTBALL OUTFIT

If officers of the German or Japanese armies ever want to challenge officers of the 91st Infantry Division at Camp White to a game of softball to settle this war, once and for all, they will be accommodated so fast they won't have time to yelp "Heil Hitler" or put on their spectacles.

For the 91st division headquarters officers have quite a team, one they'd stack up against any the axis could produce and feel completely confident of whipping the daylight out of it. The officers have played only one game, but that lone fling at organized competition proved the club has what it takes. The game was against a team from the colored quartermasters' detachment, Fort Lewis, which is stationed here temporarily. It was staged Monday evening and the officers showed consistent hitting and fielding strength in beating the opposition, 5 to 4.

The lineup of the team looks like this: catcher, Lieut. Burke, from the adjutant general's office; pitcher, Lieut. Heath, also from that office; first base, Lieut. Col. Bartlett, assistant C of S, G-3; second base, Maj. Van Roo, division ordnance officer; third base, Maj. Gen. Gerhardt, commanding general; shortstop, Lieut. Col. Heacock, division's inspection general; outfield, Lieut. Puntunney, aide-de-camp; rightfield, Lieut. Col. Tabscott, G-1; centerfield, Lieut. Whitehead, aide-de-camp and leftfield, Capt. Reynolds, assistant G-3.

A twilight league, with all units of the 91st division to enter teams, will start early next week.

Glendale, Calif., July 22.—(P)—Frankie Albert, one of Stanford's smartest quarterbacks and now an ensign in the navy, married his schoolyard sweetheart last night in his home town. She was Martha Jean Barringer, daughter of John C. Barringer, president of the Glendale chamber of commerce.

Bundster Admits He Served As Axis Spy

Hartford, Conn., July 22.—(P)—American-born Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, former national leader of the German-American Bund, pleaded guilty today in federal court to a charge that he conspired to furnish military and defense information to Germany and Japan before Pearl Harbor.

The 36-year-old bundist, arrested in Mexico last month after he and four others had been indicted by a federal grand jury here, previously had denied the charge.

Rainiers Edge Out Beavers, 3 to 2, On Barrett's 6-Hitter

(By the Associated Press)
The Seattle Rainiers are far off the baseball form that won them three Pacific Coast league pennants, but they are riding along in third place today—in a good spot for a mid-season rally.

Losses by San Francisco and San Diego last night helped the Rainiers into the enviable upper-division spot as Seattle edged out the last-place Portland club, 3 to 2.

Ten timely safeties off Syd Cohen, Beaver moundman, together with a six-hit pitching effort by Dick ("Kewpie") Barrett made the close win for the Rainiers, who played flawless ball and turned in three double plays.

Oakland dumped the Seals, 6 to 1, by clouting Sam Gibson for six hits and all their tallies in the opening frame.

Sacramento went 10 innings to best San Diego, 5 to 4. Los Angeles, leading the second-place Solons by three games, ran amok at Hollywood to blank the Stars 11 to 0 and extend the Angel win streak to 13 games.

The Stars probably will be shopping for a new pitcher soon, for Johnny Bittner, their best-performing hurler, notified club officials yesterday that he was leaving immediately for Seattle to enlist in the navy.

Short scores:
Portland..... 2 6 2
Seattle..... 3 10 0
Cohen and Leovich; Barrett and Collins.
