Gala Time Planned For Annual League Fiesta Wednesday

Gala night of the entire summer will be Wednesday evening of this week when the Jackson county League of Women Voters stages its annual fiesta. To be given at the grounds of the Porter J. Neffs on Berkeley Way, the evening's entertainment will be gay and varied with booths and games presided over by the valley's most charming young women.

"Victory" is the theme of the fiesta this year and decorations will be in red, white and blue. Patriotic prizes will be given and it is expected that the uniforms of attending officers and men in service will lend a military touch to the scene.

Highlight of the entertainment program will be a humorous quiz program with a team of three women opposing a team of three men. Mrs. Lela Rogers, Mrs. Alex Sparrow and a third member to be announced later will match wits with H. Fluhrer, Justin Smith and Arthur Perry. Jack Matlack is to be master of ceremonies for this event and questions are to have a local angle.

A large variety of games have been arranged, there will be community singing and several prizes, including a quantity of defense stamps, will be given away. Beverages will be dispensed by authentic appearing bartenders with their hair parted in the center and costumed girls will have trays of cigarettes and candles.

Mrs. Chauncey Brewer is general chairman of the affair which is for league members and their friends.
