

Olivia de Havilland, George Brent In Poignant Drama At Craterian

FRANK CRAVEN IN SUPPORTING ROLE WITH MANY STARS

Dennis Morgan Headliner—Charles Coburn and Billie Burke in Cast.

One of the year's most poignant dramas will make its local debut today at the Cool Craterian Theatre when "In This Our Life", opens a three day run. The film features a brilliant cast with Bette Davis, Olivia de Havilland, George Brent and Dennis Morgan in the four starring roles, while Charles Coburn, Frank Craven and Billie Burke make up the talented supporting cast.

The film is set in the South where a once proud family, the Timberlakes, have lost much of their prestige, due to financial manipulations of one member of the family. Bette plays the role of Stanley, a capricious, inconsiderate girl who believes her own happiness is the only thing that counts. Regardless of whom it may hurt, she is determined to do just as she pleases. But she never gains that happiness. Her own striving for the unattainable brings up happiness to her and to everyone with whom she comes in contact.

Her sister, Roy, played by Olivia de Havilland, is the one to be most affected by Stanley, who is engaged to Craig Fleming, a bright young lawyer, played by George Brent, plans to forget about him and run off with her sister's husband, Peter, a surgeon, portrayed by Dennis Morgan. After a very short time, Peter realizes his mistake in divorcing his wife and marrying Stanley. He becomes so miserable that he is forced to commit suicide.

In the meantime Roy and Craig, brought closer by their mutual unhappiness, fall in love. Stanley, after a very brief period of grief, returns home and loses no time in plunging the entire household into a state of anxiety by her newest inconsiderate acts.

Red Skelton, Ann Southern In Wednesday Comedy

There's fun to pay as America's favorite radio and screen comedian—Red Skelton—joins Ann Southern in her newest Maisie comedy, "Maisie Gets Her Man", which comes to the Cool Craterian Theatre Wednesday for a four day run. Allen Jenkins, Leo Gorcey, Donald Meek, Lloyd Corrigan, Walter Catlett and Fritz Feld have fun-roles with Skelton and Miss Southern.

Roxy Opens Today With 'Smiling Ghost'

A cheerful cast made up of Alexis Smith, Brenda Marshall and Alan Hale try to convince Wayne Morris that the "Smiling Ghost" is just a comedy of terrors in the chill-show by that title which plays today and tomorrow night only at the Roxy Theatre.

"Thieves Fall Out", featuring Eddie Albert, Joan Leslie and Jane Darwell, plays as the companion comedy with "The Smiling Ghost".

CHANGING SHOWS TWICE WEEKLY IS POLICY AT HOLLY

There's a "new deal" at the Holly Theatre starting today, with a policy of two changes each week instead of the three that has been the policy of the theatre. Elimination of the mid-week change will give Medford showgoers better programs, the new policy allowing a more careful selection of the film product available for showing.

Change days will hereafter be Sundays and Wednesdays and, starting a three day run today, the first of the new, more carefully chosen programs, has "The Mayor of 44th Street" and "Butch Minds the Baby" as the two major, first-run features on the same program.

"The Mayor of 44th Street", starring George Murphy and Anne Shirley, with Freddy Martin's famous orchestra in a featured spot playing his sensationally successful "Piano Concerto", is a story of bright-light night life, as an ex-racketeer and his hoover partner turn the heat on the old mob that tries to move in on the "big name" bands.

Richard Barthelmess, William Gargan and Joan Merrill head the supporting cast.

The companion feature, "Butch Minds the Baby", with Brod Crawford, Virginia Bruce, Dick

Foran, Porter Hall, Shemp Howard, Richard Lane and Fuzzy Knight in the featured roles, is Damon Runyon's latest story of Broadway to reach the screen. Typically Runyon, the story is a hilarious mixup of hard-boiled hearts and a lovable tot whose dimples work wonders. Remindful of Runyon's "Little Miss Marker", which brought fame and stardom to Shirley Temple several years ago, this new story is a riot of fun.
