

The Grange

Applegate Grange
Applegate Grange was called to order by Master Lester Hill at the regular meeting July 24. The press of harvest still kept some of the officers and members from attending. The HEC chairman reported work of filling the Hope Chest progressing satisfactorily. Next meeting is to be at Grace Hunter's. Sister Grace Hunter was duly elected and installed in the office of Flora. Lecturer Benj. F. Ellis led group in a number of relays followed by a quiz program which included some spelling contests. The hour closed with Berthea Elmore and Lester Hill singing "One Dozen Roses."

PARTIES, DANCES ON USO PROGRAM IN COMING WEEK

The USO program is expanding by leaps and bounds, according to Mrs. Helen J. Small, director. Mrs. Small states that the little clubhouse at Main and Bartlett is natively too small and that for many of last week's events standing room only was in order.

Events planned for outside the clubhouse are ice skating parties at the Ice Arena, through the courtesy of Denny Edgeman. This skating party will be a weekly event. Tuesday the Young People's Guild, an a successful party at the Parish hall at the Catholic church, while Mrs. Earl Moore's lawn was the scene of an outdoor movie show, "The Private Letters of Private Dobbins," as well as a South American folk festival, were included in the program. Hal's Camera Shop loaned the projector and ran off the movie.

The problem of overcrowding was solved through the cooperation of the superintendent of schools in turning over the Lincoln school gym for last Wednesday's "army special" dance. Arrangements are being made to use the high school tennis courts for outdoor dances hereafter. The USO thanks C. W. Gillette's orchestra for contributing music and the Knights of Pythias for allowing use of their hall for a Russian evening.

Philip Henselman has offered his home on Saturday evenings for a music lover's "listener's hour." The program includes recordings and social hour. Service men and wives interested are asked to sign up at the USO Club Hour for this Symphonic Hour, as well as for the special Sunday outings planned through the Grants Pass and Ashland War Recreation committees.

The Christian church has turned over its hall to the colored chorus which is under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Jensen on Wednesdays, 7:30 p. m. The Girls' Community club has donated the use of its clubhouse for the Junior Hostess chorus, as well as other USO volunteer meetings.

Thank you's for the week go to: Mrs. O. A. Ellen for covering information chair, Dr. and Mrs. Haines of Ashland for lovely party last Sunday, Mrs. E. Leach for box of plums, Miss Elizabeth Burr for two boxes of cherries, Mrs. Goodrich for one box of cherries, Mrs. G. R. Potts of Willow Springs for phonograph records, Mrs. Morthland for victrola records, Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter for sandwiches, and for victory cookies; Miss Ann Livingston, Mesdames Ray E. Wright, L. T. Nigard, R. A. Duff, Captain Albert Frank, August Lang, S. R. Dippell, H. E. Rinabarger, W. H. Reichstein, J. W. Wakefield, C. C. Leonard, C. M. Wade, Lee Bishop, L. B. Thurman, W. E. Holmes, E. C. Corn, V. C. Setcher, V. J. Robinson, L. V. Watkins, Jack Swem, J. J. Newman, S. A. QUARTET HELD IN WOMAN'S SLAYING

Seattle, July 27.—(P)—Continuing their investigation into the Saturday night slaying of Mrs. Edith Croft, 47, police today are holding the woman's husband, Earl Croft, and three other men for investigation.

Mrs. Croft's body was found badly mutilated in her apartment a block from the police station and Croft was placed under arrest after telling officers he arrived home late Saturday night to find his wife dead and a man in the apartment.

Croft apparently had been drinking and was badly befuddled. Detective Captain C. V. Dailey of the homicide squad, said.

The three other men being held were taken into custody in a hotel room and booked for investigation after being heard discussing the case.

LITTLE SCHOONER 399TH VICTIM OF AXIS SUBMARINES

By The Associated Press
The tiniest craft yet to be sunk by an axis submarine—a 30-ton Canadian fishing schooner—was disclosed last night as the 399th Allied or neutral war victim in the western Atlantic as tabulated unofficially by the Associated Press.

The crew of 11, all of whom survived the attack and rowed 100 miles to an eastern Canadian port, reported that the schooner, the Lucille M. of Lockport, N. S., had been shelled and peppered with machinegun fire by an enemy submarine off the Nova Scotia coast.

The schooner, three of whose crew were injured, was the first Canadian fishing vessels lost by enemy action. A total of 108 seamen was killed and 548 passengers and crewmen rescued in 15 merchant ships sinkings announced last week. Sixty-one other persons were reported missing.

Of the victims reported during the week of July 19-25, nine were U. S. ships, two British, one Panamanian, one Swedish, one Portuguese, and one Norwegian.

OFFICERS, CAVALRY ENJOY ROXY RIDE

Officers of the 91st Infantry Division and their wives, and members of Company G, Oregon State Guard cavalry troop, and their wives, enjoyed a joint picnic-breakfast on Roxy Ann Sunday morning, the officers and cavalry troop members riding their mounts to the picnic area and their wives following in automobiles. Thirty-two guardsmen and their wives attended.

Following the breakfast the officers and cavalymen engaged in pistol practice, with Major General Charles H. Gerhardt, commander of the 91st division, expressing his pleasure at the opportunity afforded the officers and cavalry troop to join in such a function.

Officers of the 91st plan to extend invitations to the Lake Creek and Ashland cavalry platoons for joint rides in the near future.
