Disney's "Fantasia" Here Friday

A gay young blade, the unicorn, kicks up his heels in grand shape in one of the thousands of hilarious scenes in Walt Disney's "Fantasia," which comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow for one big week. Filmed in advanced technicolor, "Fantasia" comes to Medford at regular Rialto prices after a year's successful run at three and four dollars a seat. The film is the same length as the previous showing and this engagement is the first in southern Oregon.

In Blackout

Red Skelton takes advantage of a blackout (and Ann Sothern) to give Craterian theatre patrons their funniest hit in months in "Malsie Gets Her Man," playing at the cool theatre through Saturday night.

COAST GUARD IS KILLED BY BLAST

Rainier, Ore., July 30—(P)—Seaman Second Class William F. McKinley, 20, of the U. S. coast guard, was killed about 9 p. m. yesterday in a blast aboard a 28-foot picket boat which was refueling at the dock here.

Coast guard authorities at Astoria said after an investigation that the cause of the blast had not been determined.

Two other crew men had stepped from the boat to the dock to aid in the refueling and escaped injury. The boat was not badly damaged although the top of the cabin was blown off.
