Visitors Here—Mrs. Paul Entremont of the Holland Hotel returned to Medford yesterday after a short trip to her home in Colusa, Calif. Mrs. Entremont was accompanied here by her mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. James M. Stovall and Mrs. E. K. Entremont, both of Colusa, who will visit the Entremonts for a week. Mr. Entremont is a contractor at Camp White.

First Aid Class—The local chapter of the American Red Cross has announced that a first aid class for the wives of men in service will be organized if a sufficient number are interested. Anyone interested is asked to call the Red Cross office before Wednesday of next week.

Mixer Is Damaged—A cement mixer at a plant of the Semon Construction company, McAndrews Road and Riverside avenue, was considerably damaged yesterday when the gas tank exploded. Firemen made a run to the scene with the chemical truck and extinguished the fire.

In England—A cablegram was received this morning by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Earley from their son, Sgt. Joe Earley, stating that he had arrived safely in England. Sgt. Earley, who is with the headquarters squadron of the Eighth Fighter Command of the U. S. air corps, left the eastern seacoast about a month ago.

Four In Court—Four persons appeared in city police court this morning because of traffic violations. O. W. Harris was fined $2.50 on a double-parking charge. Tayna Tatman was fined $10 for violation of the basic motor law. Marvin Dale Morris, Ashland, was fined $5 for driving without an operator's license and John Quincy Adams, $5 for failure to stop at a stop sign.

Many Are Fined—Several men came up in city police court this morning on charges of being drunk or disorderly. James H. Mansell, 33 and Wilbert Alden Layton, 37, were both fined $10 on the disorderly charge. They were picked up during a fracas on South Central avenue around midnight last night. Marvin Simmie Climer, 23, and Earl Thos. McClellan, 25, also booked on a charge of being disorderly and fighting in a public place, each forfeited bail of $10 this morning. Russell Ruff, 31, and Ernest A. Ellison were each fined $10 on charges of being drunk and Raymond Schaeffer Prewitt, 33, was given a five-day jail sentence on the same charge.

Given Ticket—Margaret Rush, Ashland, was given a traffic ticket by local police yesterday for failure to stop at a stop sign. She is to appear in court August 5.

GLEN H. WRIGHT, 47
PASSES SUDDENLY

Glen H. Wright, 47, who had recently come here and purchased farm property out from Central Point, passed away suddenly in Medford yesterday forenoon.

Mr. Wright came to town yesterday to see his doctor and had just left the doctor's office when he became stricken. He was carried back to the office where all possible aid was rendered but he failed to regain consciousness. Cerebral hemorrhage was given as the cause.

He was born at Yakima, Wash., October 14, 1894. He came to Medford with his wife six weeks ago to make their home. They formerly resided at El Centro, Calif.

Besides his wife, Ruth Wright, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Harold Fly of Brawley, Calif. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wright, reside at Grand View, Wash. Five brothers and three sisters also survive. Ernest Wright and Mrs. Jas. Garrett of El Centro, Calif.; Victor Wright, Yakima, Wash.; Theodore and Donald of Grand View, Wash.; Phillip of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Grace Sands of Seattle and Mrs. Ina Merlo of Hollywood, Calif.

Arrangements for services will be announced by Conger Funeral Parlors later.
