MOTOR CORPS OF MEDFORD WOMEN RENDERS SERVICE

Camp White—(Spl.)—Twenty-seven Medford women under leadership of Mrs. Jack Morrill. Red Cross captain, to whom the word "service" means hard work, devotion to an ideal and sacrifice have earned for themselves and the citizens of Medford and vicinity, the enviable distinction of being the first Motor Corps Unit in Jackson County now engaged in active co-operation with the military authorities.

Donating their time, tires, automobiles and energy to the task, the Motor Corps Unit under direction of Red Cross Field Director Joseph Laux, has arranged transportation facilities between Camp White and the cities of Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass for convalescent soldiers, families of ill patients and nurses. They have also undertaken an official messenger and essential delivery service between these areas and the camp.
Other duties include transportation to camp and return of the parents of soldiers and friends who have come to visit and have no other means of conveyance.
Emergency requests for this service may be made at the American Red Cross Headquarters in the courthouse, Medford, or by calling Extension 27 at Camp White.
