Meirings Honored At Dinner Party En Route South

Lieut. Col. Herman J. Meiring and Mrs. Meiring were honor guests at a dinner given Thursday evening of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Steward, Eastwood Drive. The Meirings, who formerly resided in Medford, were enroute to Muroc Lake, in California. Col. Meiring has been transferred to a California station from McChord field, Tacoma, where they spent the past several months and on the way south the couple stopped briefly in Medford to visit friends.

Assisting Mrs. Steward as hostess were Mrs. Earl York and Mrs. Tim Dally. Forty guests were included for the pleasant affair. Music for the evening was furnished by the Prentice accordion band.

Boussum-Holley Marriage Rites Are Announced

The wedding of Miss Florence Boussum, daughter of Mrs. Cora Boussum, 516 Mary street, and Fay A. Holley was announced yesterday by the bride's mother. The service was read at Yreka, Calif., with the couple attended by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Jorgenson of Yreka.

For the wedding the bride wore a silk jacket suit of robin's egg blue with accessories of white.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Holley are well known in Medford. Mrs. Holley, who graduated from Medford high school, is on the staff of the Craterian theatre and Mr. Holley is with the local force of the state police. They will make their home at 201 East Twelfth street after their return from a short wedding trip.

Memorial Service Given By Rebekahs

A memorial service for Mrs. Margaret Ellen Fisher was given by the officers of Olive Rebekah lodge at the meeting of the order last Monday night. Mrs. Fisher, who passed away recently, was a member of long standing of the lodge.

Following the session at the hall members adjourned to the home of Mrs. Ina Huson, noble grand, where a lawn party was enjoyed. Mrs. Huson was assisted by Mrs. Lottie Cave and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hammerley. The entertainment committee was Mrs. Ella Gould and Mrs. Lottie Howard. Games were played and refreshments served. About 60 were present.

The next meeting of the group will be August 17 at the hall and will be followed by a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dyer, 29 Myrtle street. Mrs. Ed. Pease will be refreshment chairman and Mrs. Emily Conrad, program chairman.

Berteena Elmore And Lester Hill Wed in Applegate

Miss Berteena Elmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Elmore of Applegate and Lester Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hill of Provolt, were married last Sunday morning. The service was read on the lawn of the Elmore home by the Rev. Ward Lamkin.

As a background for the lovely service an arbor of gladioli, baby breath and ferns had been arranged on the lawn. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of powder blue silk organza and carried a cascade bouquet of pink rapture roses with white streamers. Miss Evelyn Brockway of Medford, who was maid-of-honor, wore a floor-length dress of pink mist net and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink and blue flowers with white streamers.

Harold Whitestone of Murphy was best man for Mr. Hill. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Harry Treloar, Butte, Mont., sister of the groom, played Schubert's Serenade and the bridal chorus from Lohengrin.

For the service Mrs. Elmore wore a dress of blue and white linen and Mrs. Hill wore brown flowered silk. For travelling the bride chose a brown jacket dress.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held with Mrs. Annie Knutzen, Mrs. A. E. Brockway of Medford and Mrs. Herbert Elmore assisting. Incidental accordion music was furnished for the reception by Mrs. Kenneth Ensele, Talent.

Present for the ceremony were Miss Evelyn Brockway, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whitestone, Murphy; Mrs. Annie Knutzen of Applegate; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brockway, Miss Marjella Brockway, Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Jones of Medford; Mrs. Dan Lambert, Bob and Bill Lambert of Minot, N. Dakota; Mrs. Kenneth Ensele, Miss Norma Work and Mrs. Ray Hawk of Talent; Dr. Roland R. Jones of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Leland McCann and Mrs. James McCann, aunt of the bride, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elmore, Charles, Truman and Russell Elmore; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hill, Larry and Randall Hill; Mrs. Harry Treloar and Claudia Treloar of Butte, Mont.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hill are well known in the Applegate district and in Medford, the bride having graduated from the Medford high school. Following a short trip to the coast the couple will reside near Provolt.
