GIRL, 4, NEAR END CROSS CONTINENT OPERATION TRIP

New York, Aug. 8.—(P)—Four-year-old Sharon Bell, daughter of a Vancouver, B. C., policeman, was on the last lap of a cross-continent flight to night, undertaken to save her life which is threatened by a key imbedded in her larynx. Accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Eileen Murchison of Vancouver, she left a trans-Canada airlines plane at La Guardia airport early tonight and boarded a train for Philadelphia where physicians of the Chevalier Jackson institute will perform the necessary delicate operation. Sharon swallowed a key used to open a peanut can at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bell, last Monday night. Three operations failed to remove the key and a tube was inserted in her throat to aid her in breathing.

With her aunt she boarded a plane in Vancouver last night and reached Toronto this morning. After a three hour wait she flew on here. A taxi was waiting to rush her to the Pennsylvania station to board the Philadelphia train on which a reservation had been made.

FT. LEWIS SOLDIER HELD FOR KIDNAP, ATTACK ON WIDOW

Olympia, Aug. 8.—(P)—Prosecutor John S. Lynch Jr., of Thurston county said today a Fort Lewis soldier was being held and two others were being sought in connection with the kidnapping and raping of a 31-year-old Chehalis widow.

Lynch said the woman was driving home when she was abducted and attacked. The prosecutor said she stopped at an Olympia restaurant about 1:30 a. m., and that when she came out and entered her car again three soldiers also climbed in.

The soldiers said they were "going along," Lynch said, and the woman believed she would be safe with three of them in the car so didn't object to the way they invited themselves into the machine.

Near Tenino, about 15 miles south of here and halfway to Chehalis, the soldiers shoved the woman out of the driver's seat, however, and drove off the Pacific highway onto the prairie.

Each soldier attacked the woman, according to the story she told Lynch, and tore all her clothing off except a blouse and shoes.

They broke her glasses, took the car and left her on the prairie.

She tried to get help at farmhouses but failed. Nearly nude she made her way back about 5 a. m. to the highway where a man and a woman and a boy in a car on a camping trip took her home.

She returned here several hours later to report to Lynch. Officers going to the scene of the attack found her glasses and a soldier's hat. From the name in it they arrested a soldier at Fort Lewis.
