The Big "Y" joins all southern Oregon in greeting the men of the New 91st Division, and the members of the Old 91st here for the reactivation ceremony. . . . This fine group of fighting men at Camp White may be depended upon to carry on the glorious traditions of the Pine Tree Division first established in France in 1918. . . . To our neighbors at Camp White we offer the sincere hope that your stay in southern Oregon will be a thoroughly enjoyable one and that you will bring added glory to the 91st Division flag and to Old Glory when you leave for some distant battle field after your training here.
