Former Medford Man Weds Eugene Girl In Portland

The marriage of Miss Theresa Kelly, daughter of Mrs. Harry J. Kelly of Portland and W. Dolph Jones of Eugene, son of Mrs. Harris Jones of this city, was read the evening of August 1 at 8 o'clock in the Grace Memorial Episcopal church in Portland by the Rev. John Richardson.

The bride party entered the church, which was decorated with white gladioli palms and lighted tapers while Mrs. H. B. Rose played the traditional wedding march. Mrs. Charles Duthie sang Grieg's "I Love Thee" and Bohm's "Calm as the Night."

The bride chose a wedding dress of white satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves and a train. A veil of net edged with lace fell in a long train from a coronet of pearls. She carried a white prayer book and white orchids from which hung streamers tied with bouvardia.

Mrs. Matthew Kelly of Portland, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore pink chiffon with a small matching veil. Dolores Richardson, flower girl, also wore pink chiffon with a pink coronet in her hair.

Harris Jones of this city was best man for his brother and ushers were Matthew Kelly and Dr. William Barnum.

Mrs. Kelly, mother of the bride, wore a pink gown with aqua marine accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Jones, chose a pursuit blue gown with coral and accessories of black. Her corsage was coral begonia.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, where the wedding cake, topped with a wedding bell, was first cut by the bride. White flowers and tapers completed the arrangement. Pouring were Mrs. Harold Gregg and Mrs. N. Von Hinkle, cousins of the bride. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Peggy Sweeney, Mrs. Dwight Hedges, Mrs. Joe Bishop, and Miss Nell Patrick. Mrs. Walter Brown of Portland and Miss Stephanie Peterson of Eugene.

Among wedding guests were Mrs. Dolph Phillips, Mrs. Jones and Harris Jones of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fields, former Medford residents, and Dr. and Mrs. William Barnum of Portland.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the couple is residing in Eugene. Mrs. Jones graduated from University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta social sorority and Phi Beta and Phi Lambda Theta honoraries. She is active in music circles in Eugene. Mr. Jones attended University of Oregon also and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is production manager for radio station KORE at Eugene.

Plans for the next meeting include plans for better organization of the club and participation in many activities. A discussion of scheduled activities will include a sewing circle to specialize in layettes, a series of nutrition talks, Little Theatre, and out-door sports including horseback riding, ice skating and hiking.

Attending the out-door gathering Wednesday were the Mesdames Irene Sanders, Jane Laque, "Touchy" Scott, Mimi Longori, Versie Thompson, Josephine Dixon, Eddie Pickle, Gene Faye, Elnora Hance, Billie Williamson, Also Miss Verlinde Silvia, Mrs. Helen Small, USO director, Mrs. Edward Rein, and Mrs. E. E. Gore, volunteer advisors for the wives, and the hostess, Mrs. Neff.

MISTER

Why Don't You Try Doing The Wash Just One Day?

Sweat and fume in the basement over hot tubs... hang up clothes under a merciless sun... then decide whether it's worth it. Would you work in a steamy, hot office for just a few dollars a week? That's just about what your wife is doing right now. And it isn't fair! Give her a vacation from the wash tubs. Tell her to call in the American Milk week. It's good business sense!
