HOME, to the American people, is a symbol of peace and freedom. Whenever you travel to near or distant parts, there is a feeling of security in knowing that you can return to a home with its comforts and conveniences, its peaceful family life.

How would you like to be welcomed home by the crashing of bombs, by pillars of smoke arising from the ruins of possessions for which you had worked and saved?

That is no fantastic dream. Anything can happen. That is why thousands of Union Pacific employees, resolved to retain their American freedom, are tirelessly working to help Uncle Sam. Troop trains—huge shipments of raw materials and armament—roll over "The Strategic Middle Route" in a never-ending procession. It's up to all of us to "keep 'em rolling." We must be victors—not victims.

GET READY FOR THE MEATLESS DAYS TO COME!

TO SUPPLY our allies we Americans must learn to get along with less meat as the war progresses.

Scarce in eastern states but still plentiful here we too will feel the shortage when Russia and other allies must be fed throughout the coming winter.

We can help in several ways. Learn to serve cheese, which is abundant and some of the finer canned meats of which there is now a goodly supply.

Saturday we offer Prem—a Swift's Premium meat. Put away a dozen cans and forget it until the actual scarcity restricts the use of fresh and smoked meats. Thus you will release more meats to our army and to our allies.

Put away only a reasonable amount. It keeps indefinitely without refrigeration.

As delicious for breakfast as ham or bacon with eggs.

Finest for sandwiches.

Tops served cold with potato salad.

Makes a marvelous meat loaf.

Hot or cold, an all-purpose gov't inspected meat.
