

WARREN AWARDED $12,000 IN CAMP WHITE LAND SUIT

Ruth and J. P. Warren, defendants in a government condemnation suit involving 240 acres of land they formerly owned in the Camp White area, Friday evening were awarded $12,000 for their property by a U. S. district court jury that deliberated about three hours. The Warrens, represented by Attorney Charles W. Reames, had asked $22,000 for the land, the government had offered $9,000.

May E. Bowling, represented by Edward C. Kelly, was awarded $300 for 70 acres she formerly owned in the cantonment area, by another trial jury. The government had offered $260, the defendant had asked $1,100. The jury was out about one hour.

Saturday morning a jury empaneled for the condemnation suit of the government versus Esther and B. J. Palmer, and Ben Dawson, heard opening statements by Attorney Kenneth G. Denman for the defense and Bernard H. Ramsey for the government. The suit, involving 1,245.56 acres in the Camp White area, will be continued at 10 a. m. Monday. Defendants are asking $12,805.80 for the two tracts of land, the government has offered $6,020.

Empaneled by Judge James Alger Fee to hear the case were the following jurors: George W. Howard, Donald Wilson, Joseph Jones, Weldon Hartley and John L. Detwiler, all of Medford; Frank P. Kurtz of Jacksonville; Harry E. Harding of Trail; U. Grant Davis of Rogue River; Fred Luy of Eagle Point; August Erickson of Gold Hill and E. H. Harbeck and W. M. Richardson, both of Grants Pass.

Judge Fee will empanel another jury at 9 a. m. Monday to hear the suit of the government versus Walter A. Grant, who, through Attorney Edward C. Kelly is asking $15,000 for 160 acres he formerly owned in the camp area, against the government offer of $9,500. The suit will be heard Tuesday.

W.C.T.U. PICKS MRS. BRYANT AS HEAD

Mrs. Minnie Bryant was re-elected president of the bi-county W. C. T. U. organization which met Thursday in this city with over 50 delegates attending from Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford. Prospect members were unable to attend. Mrs. Ellen Thrasher will serve as vice president; Mrs. Edith Cox, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Noble Stutzman, recording secretary, and Mrs. Paul Byers, treasurer.

A trio of Ashland members sang several numbers during the sessions accompanied by Mrs. Thrasher of Grants Pass. Reports were given by the presidents of the three societies. All societies reported substantial gifts to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis which is supported by W. C. T. U. Mrs. Thrasher invited all to the state W. C. T. U. meeting which will be held in Grants Pass, October 20-23. The national president, Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith will be guest speaker at the state convocation.

Mrs. Mable Holmes spoke of her work in connection with the Louise Home for Girls. An interesting account of temperance work in Ashland in early days was given by Mrs. Lowther of Ashland. Rev. R. W. Coleman of this city and Rev. Noble Stutzman of Grants Pass also spoke briefly.

Civilian Defense Activities

There will be a meeting of Defense General training class on bombs at 8 p. m. Monday, September 14, at the Senior High school. All civilian defense assignments who have not taken the general course are urged to attend.

JEWISH SERVICES CONDUCTED HERE

For the first time in its history, Medford witnessed the religious services Friday attending on the coming of the Jewish New Year. Over 150 officers, enlisted men and civilians were present. Special trucks were sent out late Friday afternoon to the 91st Division bivouac headquarters to bring men of Jewish faith to the services. Among the guests was Chaplain

Johnson, acting post chaplain for Camp White.

Chaplain Honig of the 44th Division conducted the services, chanting parts of the ritual in the custom of cantors since time immemorial. Chaplain Honig was granted special permission by his commander at Fort Lewis to be present at Medford. Arrangements for the services were under auspices of USO staff member, Richard Meyer, here on special assignment for the Jewish Welfare Board.
