"Tales of Manhattan" Friday Night

A picture that will make audience's eyes fairly pop right out of their heads is the eagerly-awaited star-studded "Tales of Manhattan," which comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow for one week. Nine great stars and 44 have leads in the show.

will be drawn for the October term of the circuit court to open the last week of October.

Shopping Service Offered Soldiers

A shopping service, where men in the army and others interested may leave orders for the purchase of articles, have them wrapped and mailed, opened today at 135 South Central avenue. Pearl Standridge and June Hoskins are managing the service.

The store will be open from 12 noon until 9 p. m. daily except Sunday. Goods from local stores will be on display in the windows and the shopping service will fill a great need for the army man who is unable to be in Medford during business hours. All that is necessary is for the shopper to designate the type of item desired, maximum cost, whom the item is for. After the purchase has been approved by the customer the gift is wrapped and mailed through the shopping service.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.
