GIG YOUNG WINS ACCLAIM AS NEW PROMISING STAR

Geraldine Fitzgerald, Nancy Coleman in Cast — Stephen Longstreet, Author.

Three wealthy sisters who live in a spacious home that is daily seeping into a greater stage of decay, and who are obviously trying to keep dark some closely guarded secret of the past, is the intriguing story "The Gay Sisters," which opens today at the Craterian Theatre for a three-day run.

The picture features a brilliant cast made up of Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Nancy Coleman and a fine newcomer for whom film critics and preview audiences alike predict a bright future, Gig Young.

The story is adapted from the best-selling novel by Stephen Longstreet, whose powerful writing was transplanted in all its strength from print to film. The three Gay sisters (nicknamed the "Gay sisters" by the press) Fiona, Lady Burton and Susanna, played respectively by Barbara Stanwyck, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Nancy Coleman, are theoretically worth a fortune but are actually up to their necks in debt.

This situation is due to the fact that one Charles Barclay, played by George Brent, has contested their father's will and has managed to keep the case in various courts for over twenty years in the hope that the Gaylords would be forced to sell him their property. But Fiona, who had it instilled in her from

Fibber McGee, Charlie McCarthy Comedy Coming

That happy gang of radio entertainers who made the world laugh in "Look Who's Laughing"—are coming right back to

Medford in another laugh riot, "Here We Go Again," which opens at the Craterian Theatre Wednesday for a four day run. Fibber McGee and Molly, Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen have the starring roles and other folks from Wistful Vista are Gildersleeve, Mrs. Uppington and Old Timer.

"B" PICTURE STAR WANTS DIVORCE

Hollywood, Sept. 19—

Lithsome, hazel-eyed Lynn Bari, the movie actress who escaped paying the customary 10 per cent fee by marrying her theatrical agent, Walter Kane, today filed suit for divorce, deciding successful business relations don't insure marital happiness.

Miss Bari, five feet, six inches tall, who gained the unofficial title of the "queen of the B pictures" by playing the heroine in western films for eight years, charged Kane with cruelty.

"We do not want to enlarge upon the allegation at this time," her attorney, Morton Garbus, said.

The actress, whose real name is Marjorie Bitzer, married Kane on March 5, 1939, after their business relationship flared into romance and marriage. They separated last August 10.

Daughter of a preacher, Miss Bari was first exposed to dramatics when her family moved from New Hampshire to Hollywood. Her mother entered her in a dramatic school to get rid of her "self-consciousness."

Dead End Kids On Holly Bill Today

Two fun hits that are sure to be described as being the Holly theatre's grandest double bill of comedy treats—open a three-day run today with "Smart Alecks," starring the "Dead End" Kids, as the top entertainment picture, and "Friendly Enemies" the added attraction.

Roger Pryor, "Slapsie" Maxie Rosenbloom and Gale Storm, the sensation of "Lure of the Island," have featured roles with the "Dead End" Kids in this newest frolic which takes the notorious rough-housers in quest of money to buy football uniforms for the gang. They stumble onto a gang of crooks in their travels which brings about a thrilling and almost hazardous climax.

"Friendly Enemies," said to be the funniest picture to come out of Hollywood in years, stars Charlie Ruggles and Charles Winninger as lovable, scrappy father-in-laws who fight the war all over again with their amazing parlor tactics.

GLOOMY BIRTHDAY FOR GIRL KILLER

East View, N. Y., Sept. 19—(U.P.)—Edward Haight spent his 17th birthday in jail today awaiting indictment for the murders of Helen Lynch, 8, and her seven-year-old sister, Margaret. There was no birthday cake.
