On Furlough

Robert Young

Second Lieutenant Robert Young of Corpus Christi, Tex., arrived last night for a two weeks' leave with his father, Harvey Young of Beatty street. Lieut. Young has been receiving instruction in the U. S. navy air corps and recently transferred to the marine air corps. Upon leaving Medford he will be stationed at San Diego, Cal. He has been with the U. S. armed forces for the past seven months.

Pears in Georgia—Dick Jewett, former Mail-Tribune reporter now in the army, writes from Camp Gordon, Augusta, Ga., that he discovered a box of Raymond Reter's Bartlett pears in an Augusta market recently. They were selling three for 10 cents. The incident would have been colossal, had he not received a box of Medford Bartlett pears just the day before from his family. Jewett is the son of Prof. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett of Central Point.

USO AT ASHLAND HAS BUSY SUNDAY
USO activities at the Ashland center Sunday were busy from morning until 10 p. m. reports USO director Mrs. Helen J. Small. ANNUAL 4-H FAIR
SET SEPT. 29-30

The annual Jackson county 4-H fair sponsored by the Medford Rotary club is scheduled for September 29 and 30, at the Jackson county fairgrounds. This year's fair is to be somewhat streamlined due to war conditions, shortage of transportation materials and the labor situation. The home economics fair, the poultry show and the livestock show have been combined into one fair which gives promise of a record showing of exhibits. Each club is making plans to enter as many exhibits as there are members in the club.

The main attraction will be the annual livestock sale. Beginning at 1:30 September 30, all fat stock will be sold at public auction. In this sale will be prize winning fat stock that represents the individual effort of the owner, stock that many professional breeders could not equal. As an added feature to the sale, all turkeys and capons exhibited will be auctioned off.

State Communication of Reames Chapter, Thursday evening Sept. 24th at 8 p. m. Social night.
Ruth Freed, W. M.
