HEDRICK REPORTS TEACHER ROSTER AT HIGH SCHOOLS

Senior and Junior Classes Start Monday; Staggered Session at Junior High.

The list of teachers for senior and junior high schools and special teachers for the two schools were announced today by E. H. Hedrick, city school superintendent. The two schools open Monday, senior high school running a staggered session and junior high school beginning at 9 a. m. until 3:50 p. m. with lunch from 12 noon until 1 p. m.

Classes at senior high school follow: Pupils who come at 8:15 a. m. are released at 2:30 p. m. Those who report for first classes at 9 a. m. are released at 3:19 p. m. Any classes that are scheduled for 8:15 a. m. are duplicated later in the day so that no pupil is required to report at 8:15 a.m. except as a matter of preference and in some cases it is an outlet to relieve conflicts that may arise in students' schedules.

Senior high school teachers follow: L. B. Mayfield, principal, Josephine Kirtley, Louise Basford, Lorne Arnold, Edna Breeding, Miriam Burton, Elsie Butler, H. F. Cope, Olive Curry, Juanita Demmer, Gladys Herron, E. M. Hussong, Elizabeth Jerome, Jacquoise Kirtley, E. M. Kirtley, Ocy James, Alberta Loiland, Alex McDonald, L. A. Mentzer, Marguerite Mills, Sue Moshberger, Betty Parrish, Laura Phillips, Mignon Phipps, Maxine Roberts, Joanne Reisch, Ruth Sether, Johnnie Smith, Josephine Smith, Carol H. With blocks ranging to 4,000 shares being traded in carrier stocks, big board trading volume swelled to the best total since July 9 when the year's high was set at 844,290 shares. Volume today ran about 300,000 below that high-mark.

SYRACUSE CHIEFS IN LITTLE SERIES

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 23—(U.P.)—The Syracuse Chiefs, governor's cup champions of the International league by virtue of four straight triumphs over the Jersey City Giants, will meet the Columbus Red Birds of the American association tomorrow night in the first game of the Little World series.

The game will be played in Columbus.

The Chiefs won the right to represent their league for the first time by defeating Jersey City in 10 innings, 9-8, last night. A single by Van Harrington scored Clay Lambert with the deciding run before a crowd of 7,749 fans.

M'ARTHUR SENDS THANKS TO 91ST FOR LETTER, GIFT

On the day the 91st Infantry Division was activated at Camp White, August 15, Major General Charles H. Gerhardt and his staff of officers sent to General Douglas MacArthur in Australia a letter and a gift. And today they had their answer from the "hero of the Pacific."

Proudly displayed at 91st division headquarters is a cablegram from General MacArthur, received last night, which reads: "Appreciate deeply your letter. May God watch over you and the men of the 91st. I shall hope to have you with me gefore the end."

The gift to America's fighting general was a MacArthur field shirt, autographed on the back by Major General Gerhardt and his officers. Originated by General MacArthur, the shirt has short sleeves and carries no insignia, and is designed for summer wear, sans tie, in the field and on military posts. It was worn by officers and men of the 91st the past summer.

Headquarters of the 91st Infantry Division, Camp White, announced today that civilians were cordially invited to attend the dance for enlisted men to be held Saturday night in the cantonment area.

Civilians desiring to attend are asked to call Sgt. Tyler, 5221, extension 57 ring 2.

Employment Bureau Opened at G. Pass

Grants Pass, Sept. 23—(Spl.)—A local employment bureau has been established at the chamber of commerce to serve people of Josephine county seeking work and workers, Miss Elsa Gebers announced Tuesday.

She explained the bureau will not conflict with the work of the United States employment service in Medford, but is to apply to local employment problems. Persons seeking employment are invited to leave their names and addresses at the chamber of commerce, and persons seeking employes are invited to do the same, Miss Gebers said.

BIG GUNS TO FIRE ON BEAGLE RANGE

There will be artillery firing on the Beagle range in the Camp White area Friday afternoon and persons are cautioned to remain out of the district. Range guards will be posted on all roads in the firing area.

76 Freshmen Enter Normal at Ashland

Ashland, Sept. 23 — (Spl.) — The freshman registration at the SOCE Monday totaled 76, but this number is expected to be increased as soon as the seasonal work ends. The deadline for registration is October 10 and it is known that many students who are now at work will register then.

Because of labor conditions, it will be hard to determine the number of registrants until then.

Registration for upperclassmen will be held today and it is expected that next Monday will be the heaviest registration.

Famous Race Pilot Dies Of Arm Injury

Indianapolis, Sept. 23—(U.P.)—Louis F. Schnieder, 40, winner of the Indianapolis motor speedway race in 1931 and widley-known race pilot, died yesterday at a hospital where he had been a patient for three months.

Physicians said Schnieder's death resulted from an arm injury suffered several years ago in a California race.

Reese Creek Home Destroyed by Fire

Reese Creek, Sept. 23 (Spl.) The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jackson was destroyed by fire Sunday while they were away. A few pieces of clothing on the clothes line were the only things spared by the flames. Bedding, canned fruit, furniture, were entirely consumed.

TOMATOES, PEARS AT HARVEST PEAK

Harvesting of pears and tomatoes is now at the peak, with labor bottlenecks plentiful, Assistant County Agent C. B. Cordy reports. He states the next three weeks will be hardest, with many pears in need of picking and packing.

On the tomato front, there is need of pickers, and besides the tomatoes are not ripening fast, due to the cold mornings and evenings. The assistant county agent says there are only four or five hours per day with warmth enough to bring tomatoes on fast.
