During his stay here he visited his two daughters, Mrs. Phillip Humphrey and Miss Arcide Lindley and a son, William T. Lindley. Lindley stated that soldiers at Fort Lawton are especially glad to receive home town news through the Mail Tribune and subscribed to the local daily paper. Other local men at Fort Lawton are Jean Niemeyer, Bill Bowerman and Clinton (Bud) Stiger.

35 Mile Speed Asked by AAA

Washington, Sept. 25.—(U.P.)—The American Automobile association today urged all motorists to begin observance of the 35-mile maximum speed for automobiles called for in the Baruch committee's rubber report.

Association officials said voluntary cooperation would help the government solve its problem of providing enough stop-gap tires and retreads to keep vehicles rolling until there is an ample supply of synthetic rubber.

Hollywood, Sept. 25.—(U.P.)—Bud Abbott, the "thin man" of the Costello-Abbott film comedy team, announced today he and his wife had been granted legal adoption of a three-year-old blond boy.
