

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Purse Lost—Vivian Lukens of 511 Hamilton street lost her brown alligator purse yesterday containing cards and money, according to a city police report.

License to Wed—A marriage license was issued to Doyle E. Stockton and Myrtle McLaren, both of this city, at Reno, Nev., yesterday according to a United Press wire report.

Footprint Meeting—Medford chapter of International Footprinters, Inc., will meet at 7 p.m. Friday at Kyle's for dinner and refreshments, according to Carl Y. Tengwald, secretary.

Wins Promotion—Arnold W. Samuels of Medford has been promoted to the rank of major in the quartermaster corps of the 94th division, Fort Custer, Mich., according to word received from there.

To School—Lawrence Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Willis of Rogue River has returned to Willamette university at Salem for his sophomore year. He is studying aviation along with his college studies.

In Court—Paul McGinty paid $2.50 fine in city police court today for double parking. William Mulden was fined $2.50 for parking his car and leaving the motor running. Ray Sturdivant paid $10 fine for being drunk and Goldie Walker was sentenced to five days in the city jail on a similar charge.

Building Permits—Carl D. Garman made application at the city building inspector's office yesterday for permit to build an addition to a garage at 202 Elm street at a stated cost of $75. Another permit issued was to Tom Harris to build an addition to a residence at 1102 West Ninth street at a cost of $150.

Sergeant Returns—Sergeant Frank Harold Taylor left Tuesday morning for his station at Ft. Lewis, Wash., after spending a 10-day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Allison and family of 140 Spring street, and his sister, Mrs. Russell Johnson and family. He also visited Friday with the Ernest Taylor family in Redding, Cal.

Baby Born—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Cedarwall of Seattle, Wash., Sept. 7, according to word received here. The baby has been named John Michael. Mr. and Mrs. Cedarwall are former Medford residents. Mr. Cedarwall was employed by the American Fruit company here and left Medford to take a position with the OPA.

Reports For Duty—Second Lieutenant Lester W. Shepherd, son of Mrs. Alice E. Shepherd, 606 Clark street, recently reported for duty at the Columbia, (S. C.) army air base and was assigned to a medium bombardment group as a pilot. He was commissioned after completing intensive training in flying at army flying schools in Victorville and Mather Field, Calif. In civilian life he was an automobile mechanic.

Pilots Help—Naval and marine flight officers will fly as co-pilots on the domestic airlines to ease a threatened pilot shortage problem and to study airline operating practices, President W. A. Patterson of United Air Lines informed the local United Air Lines office, Max Henne, station manager, said today. The navy department, recognizing the importance of air transportation in speeding the tempo of the war program, is cooperating by making available trained and experienced pilot personnel.
