

SOUTHERN OREGON MEDICAL SERVICE IN STATE MERGER

Prepaid Doctor and Hospital Group Cooperates With Oregon Physicians' Service

A new development in the field of prepaid medical and hospital care for civilian employee groups was announced Saturday by Dr. W. G. Bishop, president of the Southern Oregon Medical Service Association.

"Oregon's medical profession is fulfilling its pledge to render the highest type of medical care to employee groups, through Oregon Physicians' Service, the approved state-wide medical service plan sponsored by the Oregon State Medical Society," Dr. Bishop said, "and on November 1, the Southern Oregon Medical Service Association will become a part of the Oregon Physicians' Service. The local office, in the Medford Center Building, will be maintained and the usual procedure of rendering medical services to employees under coverage will not be changed.

Gives Patient Choice
"A large percentage of doctors in Oregon are co-operating in the service plan, thus enabling the patient to have a free choice of co-operating physicians and surgeons in all parts of the state, and further the plan provides for medical service anywhere in the United States. A choice of hospital also is offered. The Sacred Heart hospital and Community hospital of Medford, the Community hospital of Ashland, and the Josephine County General hospital of Grants Pass care for patients under the plan, as do other hospitals throughout the state."

Oregon Physician's Service and its affiliates are already serving 75,000 employees in numerous sections of the state, according to Dr. Bishop, who said the doctors pride themselves in preserving the personal patient-physician relationship under the plan.

Details of Oregon Physicians' Service may be obtained from its office in the Medford Center Building, telephone 4044.

EDWIN M'DONALD STEPS UP IN NAVY

Orlon McDonald of 417 North Front street has received a letter from his son, Edwin A. McDonald, telling of his promotion to the rank of lieutenant-commander in the U. S. navy.

Lieut-Comdr. McDonald, who joined the navy in 1925, is a Medford high and United States Naval academy graduate, and is now commanding officer aboard the USS Hovey (DMS-11). Following his graduation from Annapolis in 1930 he was in the air corps for a number of years, later transferring to surface units of the navy.

Well known here, Lieut-Comdr. McDonald formerly carried papers for The Mail Tribune and played in the high school band. He has three brothers, Vernon, Raymond and Norval, the latter two being employed in aircraft plants in Los Angeles. Vernon is a city fireman in the same city.

KLAMATH INDIAN GIVEN JAIL TERM

Arlen Miller, Klamath Indian, was sentenced to serve 10 months in federal custody Saturday morning by U. S. District Court Judge James Alger Fee. Miller was indicted by the federal grand jury for stealing a wheel, tire and tube last July, and when he pleaded guilty at his arraignment earlier in the week was referred to the probation officer for report.

Alfred Shleman of Sutherlin, charged with violation of the fair labor standards act, was released on $1,000 bail.

The U. S. district court trial jury was released by Judge Fee Friday afternoon to report Monday at 9 a. m.

Mason Dillard, assistant U. S. attorney, and Mrs. Dillard left here Saturday for Portland.

NEBRASKA MISS, 17 ERRED IN HOPES OF JOB IN FILMS

Hollywood, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—Juvenile authorities tonight looked into the surprising movieland adventures of Betty Hansen, 17-year-old Nebraska high school girl who told them she consented to intimacy with Film Star Errol Flynn in the hope of getting a job in the movies.

"I did it of my own free will," she explained to investigators, describing how Flynn assertedly led her to an upstairs bedroom during a gay party at the Bel-Air home of Fred McEvoy, wealthy British sportsman and former Olympics bobbed champion.

"I thought it would get me into pictures," Her charges led to a complaint filed against the swashbuckling Irish actor, accusing him of statutory rape. Flynn surrendered voluntarily last night and was released on $1,000 bail pending a hearing next Friday before Municipal Judge Oda Faulconer.

Similar complaints charging rape were issued against three studio workers. Juvenile officers, studying the activities of Miss Hansen since the party at McEvoy's home on September 27, indicated that further arrests might be expected.

FATE SCRAMBLES BORTHWICK PLANS

Despite the fact that O. H. Borthwick of Central Point believes that a jinx has followed him for the last year, he announced today that he expects to leave next week for a trip east, which eventually will bring him to San Antonio, Tex., to spend the winter.

Fate began interfering with his plans last December, Mr. Borthwick said, when he had sold his 2,100-acre ranch at Antelope, Wn., preparatory to going to Hawaiian islands. Before he was out of the state Pearl Harbor was bombed. He and his wife came to Central Point to reside instead. This month the couple planned to move to San Antonio, and Mrs. Borthwick became ill with a stroke and passed away.

So, before going to San Antonio, Mr. Borthwick will return to Antelope to get his half brother, Isaac Hixon, and the two will visit their native town of Kinderhook, Ill.

PORTLAND STORES RAKED BY BLAZE

Portland, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—Police and firemen tonight investigated a $250,000 fire that raged through ten stores in a downtown business district of Portland today.

Six hundred city firemen, coast guardsmen and a number of auxiliary firemen fought the three-alarm blaze for two hours as it endangered business property in three city blocks.

Fireman Kenneth E. Garber was reported injured at a local hospital after he had been pinned beneath wreckage of the Roberts Brothers annex store. Nineteen others narrowly escaped death as two floors of the building collapsed.

SCHOOL FUND OF COUNTY BOOSTED

Salem, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—State Treasurer Leslie M. Scott announced $30,799.32 in excess income taxes have been distributed to Jackson county in lieu of half of a two-mill state elementary school tax for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943.

THE DECORATOR'S CORNER

BY Betty Wood

Painless Painting: I'm sure many more people would repaint their rooms if they didn't dread having the house torn up for a week or so with that pungent turpentine odor penetrating every inch of the house.

I'm just as sure many people would redecorate if they knew there was a paint that dried in an hour, had no "paint odor," and enabled painters to do several rooms between breakfast and dinner and have everything in place for a normal night's sleep.

There is such a paint, believe it or not. It's brand new, and was developed to take the fuss out of redecorating. Called Kem-Tone, it actually dries in an hour, and one coat is usually enough to cover any surface.

Part of its speediness is due to its rapid drying but part is due to its ability to go on any surface—including wallpaper—without priming. As long as a wall is fairly clean and not greasy, the painters can walk in and start their single coat job. Many jobs have been finished two hours after the painters arrived, and all furnishings can be back in place for dinner. And you can sleep in a Kem-Toned room the same night, without being bothered by turpentine fumes.

As for redecorating wall-papered rooms, you can put this new plastic-base finish right on the paper, provided it isn't loose. It covers those faded pink rosebuds and Japanese lanterns perfectly, and gives you a smooth modern wall surface without steaming or scraping or mass.

Of course, if your present walls are plastered or wall-board that's even better, and you can put this new plastic finish right over the plastered surface without waiting for primers or size to dry. The colors are good, too: there are thirteen standard pastels and deeper tones and twenty-four special tints can be obtained by mixing two standard colors together.

The same people have developed an ingenious new device for applying it. It's called the Roller-Koater and it takes the place of paint brushes, which by the way, are getting scarce these days because of the blockade of Chinese hog bristles. The Roller-Koater consists of a fabric coated roller on a handle and you merely dip it in the plastic finish and roll it on the walls helter-skelter. Not only does it give a rich stippled effect like painted canvas walls and eliminate all chance of brush marks and lap-lines, but it's a lot more fun than using a paint brush.

Church Invites Army Men And Families To 6 o'Clock Reception

The First Christian church, at Ninth street and Oakdale avenue, will give a reception for army men and their wives this evening at 6 o'clock. It will be an informal occasion to enable families of the church to get acquainted with families of the army men stationed here. The nursery will be open to care for small children.

A program will be presented by representatives of the church and the guests. Refreshments will be served. The pastor, Rev. R. W. Coleman, stressed that the reception is not an invitation affair and all who are interested may come and bring their friends. It is hoped that it will provide an opportunity for many of the army families to get acquainted with each other.

Mrs. Ralph Cook, the church hostess, is in charge of arrangements.

MISSING MAN REWARD
Fort Collins, Colo., Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—A reward of $500 was offered tonight for the finder of Arthur W. Clark, 42-year-old Denver bottling company executive, who has been missing in the rugged Grey Rock district 15 miles northwest of Fort Collins, since Thursday.

REGISTRATION IN COUNTY DECLINES

Registration in Jackson county for all parties for the general election totals 17,741, a decline of 1,319 over the same period in 1940 when it was 19,060. Departure of many for war and defense work, is given as the reason for the drop by the county clerk's office.

Both the democratic and republican registrations showed losses.

The republican count this year is 9,618, in 1940 it was 10,146; the democrats this year show 7,929, in 1940 they had 8,377. The republican loss is 528 voters, the democrats, 746.

Miscellaneous registrations this year total 194, in 1940 there were 237, a loss of 40.

KIDNAPED TOT IS BACK WITH FOLKS

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—Four-year-old Vivian Miller, kidnaped from her San Francisco home by an ex-convict and his wife who "always wanted a home by an ex-convict and his child," was reunited with her mother tonight at the city jail.

A police caravan of three motor cars brought Vivian and her father, Morris Miller, 200 miles from Red Bluff, Calif., with the confessed kidnapers, Beaumont and Charlotte Du Bois.

Vivian rushed into her mother's arms, sobbing "Mommy, mommy!" when the party arrived at the police station.

DuBois, also known as William Thompson, and his 23-year-old wife, who said they kidnaped Vivian because "we couldn't have a child of our own," watched the happy mother and daughter silently.

Outmoded women's hats which can be refashioned into 1942 styles are in great demand in the United Kingdom.

piteous PLEA OF PICKLE PACKERS

Portland, Ore., Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—With Oregon's pickle packers affected by an acute shortage of pickles, the Morning Oregonian tonight summed up the situation this way:

"Pickle packers' prospects of getting pickle pickers to pick pickles for pickle packers to pack are poor. Pickle pickers let pickles go to pot to prairie of pleasanter pickin' in war production, leaving pickle packers without pickles to pack and in a pretty pickle."

Greyhound SCHEDULES CHANGED

SPEED LIMIT 35 MILES

The Office of Defense Transportation has ordered bus companies to reduce operating speed to 35 miles per hour—we are complying with this order.

This requires thousands of changes in arrival and departure times for hundreds of cities and towns. New timetables must be prepared and printed, but due to the great amount of work involved there will be some slight delay in the issuance of new schedule folders.

Please consult your local Greyhound agent for information on schedules.
