Burgman Home Scene of Dinner

An enjoyable evening was spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgman, 1815 Prune street, by three army nurses from the 79th general hospital at Camp White. They were entertained at dinner and Thursday evening invited the Burgmans to Camp White for dinner.

Enjoying the Burgman hospitality were Miss Helen Kelly, first cousin of Mrs. Burgman, a hospital graduate of Mary Immaculate hospital, Jamaica, Long Island. Before entering service she was operating room supervisor.

Miss Mary Weinshieder, formerly of Fort Jay, N. Y., has been in the service nine months. She is a graduate of Long Island College hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., and her work has been chiefly in the operating room. Miss Ruth Ann Smith, graduate of Methodist hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., before entering service was associated with the medical division of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

Attending the dinner at Camp White Thursday evening were the three hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Bergman and the latter's sister, Mrs. G. A. Figge who is in this city for a short visit.

Miss Smith Speaker At Service Wives' Club
Miss Jeanette Smith of the Southern Oregon College of Education was guest speaker at the Service Wives' club at Ashland Tuesday. She discussed the proposed nursery school project now under consideration. Twelve members were present for the covered dish luncheon and business meeting which followed.

Adarel Chapter Activities Listed

A report on Red Cross and welfare work was made at the last session of Adarel chapter No. 3, O.E.S. at Jacksonville. At that time plans were outlined for activities to close the year's work. An addendum was given for Baby Peters, small son of Sister Faye Peters. Taking part were Mattie Luman, Dorothy Waldron, Jeanette Spencer with Libby Root at the piano.

At a meeting Thursday evening of the past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons were honored and a ceremony using ships loaded with flowers and representing the faithful work of the honored guests was presented. Participating in this feature were Skippers Dorothy Waldron, Vera Thomas, LaVesta Gardner, May Wynn and Olga Bowdish.

Past worthy matrons present were Mollie Britt, grand representative from the District of Columbia; Lulu Saulsbury, Nell Fick, Violet Wilson, Anna Cator, Anna Langley, Lela Shores, Alliean Maxwell, Faye Peters, Past worthy patrons included Emil Britt, Ernest Langley, Vivian Wilson, Ira Luman and Grant Todd.

Wedding Ceremony Read at Church

Sylvia Alice Hedrick of this city and Albert Raymond Proctor of Camp White were married recently at 9 p. m. at the First Christian church by the Rev. R. W. Coleman. They were attended by Marvin Satter and John W. Tungate. Also attending the wedding were Mrs. Satter and Mrs. Tungate. They will make their home in this city.

City Council of P.T.A. Meets at Brockway Home

The City Council of Parent-Teacher association met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. E. Brockway, Route 2, for the December luncheon meeting. Mrs. A. H. Puhl gave a discussion of the meaning of Christmas this year, and Miss Miriam Burton led the group in singing Christmas carols. Eighteen members attended the meeting.

Father and Son Honored With Dinner

Harry Wilson of this city and his son, Walter L. Wilson, were jointly honored with a birthday dinner at the Walter Wilson home at Oak Grove Sunday. A small group of relatives attended the affair. The elder Mr. Wilson, who was 67, has been employed at Weeks and Orr furniture store here for 23 years.

INK SPOT SHOWS

Camp Stoneman Cal.—(AP)—Pvt. Julius Patterson, one of the original four Ink Spots, came to light here recently as he was convalescing in the camp hospital. He asked to be allowed to make Jap catching No. 1 on his program, with music as a secondary consideration, but the camp thought otherwise and he was inducted into a camp program. The team has disbanded for the duration. Their home town is Indianapolis, Ind.

Milwaukee, Wis.—(AP)—Recognizing the predilection of the American soldier for pie, Milwaukee women have formed "The Pie of the Month Club" to keep the USO here supplied with pies for soldiers.
