

Whispers

from Camp White

About Facts and Faces
On the Reservation.

Anywhere there is activity in sports or recreation you will always run into The Three Musketeers of DEML, Sergeants Anderson, Galano and Waite. Their D'Artagnan, Sergeant Zimco, is never many seconds or paces distant.

Major Gayle Nichols, judge advocate of Camp White, is to leave soon for a short furlough. The JA's department, under his supervision, functions with smooth, silent efficiency. A much needed rest will be enjoyed at home in Grants Pass, Oregon.

Pfc. Eduardo Lopez has a furlough. There will be warm days and nights visiting Dad in Sunny Southern California. All around the SCU area Eduardo will be missed this holiday season. For he has brought to Agate-land, Latin warmth and sparkling wit, an inheritance from a land down south of the Border.

Sergeant Joe Freedman, popular and hard-working Camp MP, returned recently from two weeks furlough. He visited his home in Trenton, New Jersey. With candid ardor Sergeant Freedman stated he was glad and thrilled to be back in camp.

Tuesday talk among the girls from the Outpost attending the Monday night dance given by a group of Medics, was that eleven o'clock arrived all too soon, ending a delightful evening of dancing.

So ends today. Whispering I'll be seeing you tomorrow.
