Heard-Howe Wedding Read At Baptist Church

A marriage of interest during the past week was that of Miss Thelma Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Heard of Bainbridge Island, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Howe of Santa Paula, Cal. The ceremony was read Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church in this city with the Rev. W. A. Daws presiding.

The bride entered the church, which was decorated with white carnations and ferns, to wedding music played by Mrs. Veri Failing. Miss Mary Ann Gates sang two selections, "It Is For You," and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a wedding gown of white moire fashioned with a train. She wore a finger-tip veil edged in lace and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Frederick Johnston, Jr., of Portland, as matron of honor. Mrs. Johnston wore a powder blue tontion wore a powder blue dress with satin bodice and an overskirt of chiffon, with pink carnations in her hair and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bride's mother wore a brown and beige costume with a corsage of talisman roses. Best man was Sgt. Marshall Gifford of Camp White and PFC Orin Bartholomew of Camp White was usher.

A reception for relatives and close friends followed at the Jackson Hotel, where the bride cut the wedding cake. The couple departed following the ceremony for a wedding trip to Portland and Seattle. For traveling the bride wore a gold and green ensemble with green accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

The bride is employed at Gates and Lydard Groceries No. 1 and plans to return here for a short time. Mr. Howe is with the coast artillery, U. S. army and Mrs. Howe will join her husband after Christmas.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bride's sister, Mrs. Johnston of Portland and her cousin, Mrs. Ralph Walker of Eugene.

Church Rites Wed Jewel Deter, Howard L. Nevens

At a wedding solemnized at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening, Dec. 4, at 7 o'clock, Miss Jewel Deter of Medford, daughter of Mrs. Grace Bray Deter, became the bride of Howard Lee Nevens of San Diego, Cal., son of Langdon Nevens and Mrs. Ida Peterson.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and evergreen and the ceremony was read by the Rev. Harry W. Hanson in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was gowned in traditional white satin fashioned in princess style with a fingertip veil held in place with a coronet of tiny flowers. She carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds and gardenias. She was given in marriage by her brother, Theodore M. Deter of Yreka, Cal.

Mrs. Iris Dodge was matron of honor for her sister and wore a princess style gown of soft blue chiffon. Miss Velma Newton was bridesmaid and wore pale pink taffeta and both carried colonial bouquets. Little Miss Ann Deter, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

Langdon Grant Nevens, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man "by proxy," as he is in active service at sea with the U. S. navy.

The bride's mother selected a wine colored velvet gown with matching hat and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom and relatives enjoyed a supper at the Holland hotel and the couple left Saturday for their home in Vallejo, Cal.

Mrs. Nevens is well known in this city where she graduated from Medford high school and was prominent as a dancer, entertaining at many social functions here. She has been following her career of dancing for the past several years. Mr. Nevens, popular dance band leader, is now employed by the government at Vallejo.

Racial Groups Discussion Is Brought to Close

The Thursday Morning Study club in its study toward a better understanding of the major racial groups of the world, had for its topic of study Thursday "The British and the Americans." Mrs. Rawles Moore traced briefly the origins of the peoples of the British Isles and then told more fully of the English, their empire since modernity, using the following books as references: "The British Empire Under Fire," by James F. Green; "The British Empire," by Stephen Leacock; "Security Can Be Retrieved," by Sir Arthur Selter, and "Blood, Sweat and Tears," by Winston Churchill. Mrs. C. C. Drummond talked on the expansion of the British influence in India. Mrs. Carlton Jones, in her talk on America, used "The Epic of America," by James Truslow Adams, and "The Making of Tomorrow," by de Sales. She also quoted from "With Love and Irony," by Lin Yu Tang, telling what a Chinaman thinks of America.

This meeting concluded the talks on the major racial groups. A round-table discussion will be held Jan. 14 with Mrs. Justin Smith as moderator. Members are asked to be ready with questions. Mrs. M. N. Hogan presided.

The wedding cake was cut by the bride. Later the couple left for a short trip and will make their home at Eagle Point.

Garden Club Makes Decorations

Medford Garden club members have scheduled several meetings during the coming week at which time they will fashion charms and decorations for the Camp White hospital. Those who have evergreens or berries which may be used in the project are asked to bring them to the meeting or telephone 5320.

Meeting places include the home of Mrs. O. H. Brennehan, 35 Ross Court, and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, 604 Pine street, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. On Wednesday members will meet with Mrs. Frank McKean, Minnetonka street; Mrs. R. T. Nichol, 916 Whitman street, and the office of Miss Jane Snedcor, in the Jackson County Bank building, at the same time.

Christmas Tea At Church Today

A Christmas tea and social hour will be held this afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock for members and friends of Zion Lutheran church at the parsonage, 518 West Fourth street.

The tea, sponsored by the Women's Missionary society of the church, is being held in connection with the annual Stewardship Sunday observed each year at this time by the church. Mrs. Overt Hanson and Mrs. Harry Marsh will pour. Table decorations and the setting are in charge of girls of the Senior Lutheran league. Mr. Webber of Camp White will entertain on the accordion.

Travel Study Club Hears Talk On Guatemala

Mrs. H. L. Brown was hostess to Travel Study club members at her home on Geneva street Monday. Mrs. J. A. Matthews, guest speaker, told much of interest of her life in Guatemala where she and her husband resided for a year. She presented many articles typical of the Spanish speaking people of Central America.

Included in her display were hand woven drapes, pottery, a shopping bag made of burlap and decorated with wool embroidery, gourds produced by a tree, a cake of perfumed toilet soap, an article produced abundantly by the natives of Guatemala.

Miss Mabel Foster presented "Christmas in Art," a well-illustrated talk on the development of art during the past six centuries. She showed many Universal Prints and pictures purchased during her three years' study in Italy, depicting the annunciation, the nativity and the Madonna. Two prints of paintings done about the years 1300 to 1900 showed the advance made in Christian art.

The early artist was governed by rules as to placing of figures while the modern artist has no rules that he must follow but paints for the sheer love of beauty.

Lamb-Rumley Wedding Held

Staff Sergeant Lloyd Ernest Lamb and Mary Delilla Rumley were quietly married Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the county courthouse with Judge J. B. Coleman reading the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Rumley of Jacksonville and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lamb of Phoenix, Ariz.
