Job's Daughters Plan Installation

Daughters of Job made plans for installation of new officers when they met Wednesday evening at the Masonic temple. Honored Queen Natalie Parker will preside at installation which is scheduled to be held December 23, at which time Miss Betty Frey will take her office as honored queen.

Discussion was held on the Queen's Ball, annual formal dance, honoring the retiring honored queen, Miss Parker. The affair will be December 26.

Lodge Plans Christmas Party

A number of visitors were present for the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Plans were made for the children's Christmas party to be held the evening of Dec. 23 at 7:30 o'clock. The next meeting was scheduled for Dec. 21 at 7:30 p. m. Those attending the Dec. 21st meeting are asked to bring an exchange gift for the Christmas tree which will follow initiation. Visiting Rebekahs are invited.

Mrs. Mary Cave, chairman of the membership contest for the "army team" in the lodge, presented a skit assisted by Ethel Gould, Ethel Pease, Edith Prescott, Ella Rogers, Florence Bousom gave two readings.

Guests included Roy Ball of Hobart, Ind., and Abe Tenenbaum of Savannah, Ga., soldiers of Camp White; Mrs. Bessie Creamer of Boston, Mass. Mina Hoffman, who has been residing in Vancouver, Wash., and a former member of this lodge, was also a guest. She stopped here enroute to Riverside, Cal. Her son, Dale, is in the service and her daughter has joined the army nurses corps. Another visitor was Frank Rector, who has been visiting in Colorado.

Christmas Theme Of Guild Meeting

Christmas was the theme of the meeting of Crater Lake Guild at the First Presbyterian church Monday evening. The room was decorated in the holiday motif with berries and greenery. Mrs. Byron Murdoch entered her resignation as president of the group and Mrs. Iva Murray was selected as president for the remainder of the year's activities.

A musical program was presented by John Brewer and June Jarnin, who sang several numbers accompanied by Miss Emma Jane Brewer. Miss Clara Daniels gave two readings and community singing of Christmas carols closed the evening.

Discussion on the Guild evening at the Outpost, to be January 1, was held with Mrs. Murray appointed in charge of entertainment and Mrs. John Madigan, refreshments. Mrs. Verl Walker was appointed chairman of a group to consider decoration of a church room. Refreshments in keeping with the holiday season were served by the hostess committee.

Bonnie Morris Weds Mr. Furry

Phoenix, Dec. 12.—(Spl.)—The Presbyterian manse at Ashland was the scene of the wedding of Miss Bonnie Morris, daughter of G. W. Morris of Ashland, and Norven Furry, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Milo Furry of Phoenix, Saturday, Nov. 14. The Rev. Howard G. Eddy read the marriage service in the presence of parents of the couple.

The bride wore a costume of teal blue with sequin trim with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A reception for the couple followed at the home of the bride's parents, 71 Laurel street, Ashland. They will make their home in the Putman apartments in Ashland. The bride is a graduate of Ashland high school and the bridegroom of Phoenix high school.

Featured Alto Soloist

(Cut courtesy Eugene Register Guard)

Friends in Medford will be interested to learn that Mrs. Gerald Saunders, the former Marguerite Luman of this city, is taking an active part in music circles in Eugene, where she is making her home. She was selected as alto soloist in the annual December concert of the Women's Choral club, which was presented the evening of Dec. 5. The concert was given in the campus school of music building.

Mrs. Saunders featured in the alto solo "Seraphic Song," Rubinstein-Gaines, with the violin solo by Mrs. Hal Hardin.

While a resident of this city Mrs. Saunders took an active part in music affairs and was secretary of the Medford Musical society and participated in the First Methodist church choir.

W.C.T.U. Members Bring Gifts

Members of Women's Christian Temperance Union brought gifts for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis Thursday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. L. N. Younger. Mrs. Nettie Grover told of the many generous gifts from business places in the city and expressed a vote of thanks to those who contributed money and gifts to the home at Corvallis.

Dr. Susie V. Standard presided during the business session and Christmas hymns were led by Mrs. Pence. Mrs. Younger was in charge of devotions on the topic, "Bringing happiness to people by doing something for someone." Plans were made for furnishing a day room at Camp White and a committee appointed for this project.

Medford Couple Wed Monday

The wedding of Lydia Roberta Lewis and Sergeant Leslie Verne Jett, both of Medford, was solemnized Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Christian church parsonage with the Rev. R. W. Coleman reading the ceremony. Attendants of the couple were Doris Eva Ferrel and Eugene R. Kincaid.

For her wedding the bride wore a powder blue dress with a corsage of gardenias. They will make their home here, where the bridegroom is stationed with the medical detachment at Camp White.

Former Medford Boy Marries

Word has been received here of the marriage of Wallace Ludwig in Hawaii, Nov. 18. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Ludwig of this city. Just recently returned from four months' duty in the Solomon Islands, Ludwig received a promotion to chief machinist's mate with the U. S. navy.

Visitors Leave For San Francisco

Mrs. W. Phares and daughter, Miss Judy, have returned to their home in San Francisco after spending three weeks in Medford with Mrs. Phares' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McAllister, 1024 East Jackson boulevard. Accompanying them south was Mrs. Phares' sister, Mrs. J. D. Rafferty, who will visit friends for a week in the Bay city.

WHAT EVIDENCE HAVE THE ADVENTISTS THAT THEIR MOVEMENT IS OF GOD?

THEY began less than 100 years ago, and have doubled their membership every 10 years, so that now they are to be found all over the world. The observance of the Sabbath and the paying of tithes places a severe test for membership. They have schools, colleges, publishing houses, hospitals and clinics throughout all lands. What impels them to maintain such colossal enterprises?

The Answer to the Above Questions is Found in...
